Educator of The Year

Kristen Marescalchi, Educator for the Year 2019 was our guest last week and she was FABULOUS as are all EOY! Pictured above with all her favorite peeps: Betty Taylor, Principal Beverly High School, Natalia Francis, senior student from Beverly High School, Kristen, Jackie Rap EOY Chairwoman, Patricia Revlin, Kristen's Mom, Sue Charochak, Superintendent Beverly Schools. Kristen was presented with her gifts galore including $1000 for use in school and a few shekels for personal use. Kristen close to getting teary eyed thanked all and was very gracious in her winning award from the club.

Also pictured with Sub President Diane Howard with donated book of the week, and "fixed" award plaque. We did find out that no increase in pay or bonus would be coming for Kristen's win (yes we have the gall to ask superintendant). Happy time for all and such a pleasure to hand out a well deserved award.

Last week at the Beverly Rotary Club...

Meeting Date: October 10, 2019

President Dave was unable to attend the meeting so Second Vice President Diane Howard ran the meeting. She did a this day n history about an historical event (sorry , it was long and I got lost!)

Guests:
Kristen Marescalchi, Educator for the Year 2019
Patricia Revlin, Kristen's Mom
Betty Taylor, Principal Beverly High School
Sue Charochak, Superintendent Beverly Schools
Natalia Francis, senior student from Beverly High School
Anne Curry, guest of Lori Cianciulli
Officer Steve Fiore, guest of Jamie Engel

Pledge led by Jamie Engel. "America" led by Freddi Doeringer.

Since both the Sprocketeer and the Invocation person were absent, Jackie Rap and Jack Good stepped in as subs, respectively.

We sang to Ellen Dunn to celebrate her birthday.

Announcements:
Officer Steve Fiore was present at meeting to tell us about the fundraiser for Officer Bucci, who was injured. He has a long recovery and the medical bills have piled up. There will be a fundraiser at Hastings House on 10/19 (I think it involves games of corn hole).

Jo Broderick reminded everyone of the upcoming Beaux Art Ball at John Archer's home.

Bob Murphy talked about the North of Forty video which will be filmed shortly. He is looking for a red plaid hat and a red plaid jacket. Participants have been mailed schedule of when to film.

Sergeant today was Bob Murphy.
Latecomers were fined. Tops on people were compared for color
New members Eric Immerman and Ken Krall were asked to name some Rotarians in the Club. They did okay and Bob M. paid the fine.
Bob then showed some real estate photos of characters like MISTA LISTA. He had a photo that could have been Brian DApice and Sarah MacBurnie-Liporto was matched to a photo, to name a few.
Bob forgot to ask for Happy Dollars so he will be fined next week.

Jackie Rap introduced Kristen Marescalchi to the club. She is a member of the Business and Technology department at BHS. Through her marketing classes, Kristen has created a strong DECA program, which prepares students for careers in finance, marketing, hospitality and management. Our Rotary Club has donated to DECA consistently. Kristen has had some Rotarians' children in class. Kristen is a positive, energetic teacher. Student know that she cares about their welfare and success. She is hard-working and enthusiastic who has contributed her expertise to develop a strong business program at the high school and a positive school image in the greater community. Natalia Francis, one of Kristen's students, also sent in a recommendation letter. In her words: "Mrs. M. Also organizes fundraisers, ensures that all students can afford the dues, comes in early, stays late and gives that extra self-confidence to someone who is struggling. She strives to help all of her students succeed." She was then presented with a plaque and a $100 check for her personal use. She will receive $1000 to purchase materials for her classes. She spoke a few words of gratitude, highlighting that she "was truly honored and was so grateful."

Raffle
Kristen then picked the winning number for the raffle. The ticket belonged to a Rotarian we can't remember. The joker was not picked. Better luck next time!

Kristen also signed the book that we donate to the Teens' room at the Library.

Meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted by Jackie Rap. Whew!!!!
