Tips for Waitstaff
You know them, you love them, even if you don't sometimes like the food. We are talking about Sandy and Nadine, our faithful servers who take care of us every week rain or shine with a smile on their face. Show your appreciation by slipping them some holiday green, we suggest $20 is a goodly sum. Even Scrooge has given some coins to help their cause. Be a goodnik with only two weeks before the break, do some good for the ladies.

End of year meetings
For those who like to spend time with their families and friends without the itchy and scratchy sensation you get every Thursday, you get a break since our 12/26 and Jan 2 meetings are cancelled. Since many of you will be travelling, getting over bad egg nog and gathering gifts for mini auction, the braintrust has granted us this two week furlough. Enjoy your time, we meet again in 2020 on January 9.

Last Weeks Speaker
Dolly DiPesa not only brought a fascinating talk about Friends of Thai Daughters but also a flag from her hometown Quincy club. The organization's mission is to help girls in Thailand who are susceptible to human trafficking. They have 2 houses in Chang Mai and Chan Rai that house 15 girls each.

Dolly, who is a member of the Quincy Rotary is trying to raise funds for a third house. This house will house 20 girls plus staff and quarters for visitors. The goal will for it to be self-sustainable with farming, wells, stocked ponds and solar energy. The fundraising goal is $500,000 and Dolly is looking to raise $50,000 of that amount through Rotary.

Christmas Comes Early

Santa came down the chimney with a bag of new Rotarians as an early present for President Dave. If you notice we have 7 new members, 6 women. At this rate no men by 2026 which isn't the worst thing. Anne Curry is the lone regular new member and we welcome her gladly. We introduced our new corporate members from Care Dimensions and Beverly High School. In case you can't see from long photo let's explore these new members from clockwise from top: Gaggle of new members and sponsors, BHS Corporate Team: Elizabeth Taylor, Dorothy Flaherty, Sue Charachuk, Lone Ranger Anne Curry, Linnea Hagberg from Care Dimensions and Jessica Waggett and Gary Larsen from Care Dimensions. We will hold off on celebrity names cracks until 2020. Welcome all.
