Last week at the Beverly Rotary Club...

Meeting was called to order by President Dave Olson at 12:15 from the parking lot at DYC with measured spacing.

Pledge of Allegiance was led by Almiris Verga from behind bushes.

Followed by Dianne and Freddie In a bold move with "Fever"

Invocation led by Neiland Douglas, who for once was brief.

"Happy Birthday" was sung for Chatellier, Thomas Mar 13
Frasca, Peter Mar 15
Rich, James Mar 15
Flowers, Julie Mar 17
Osborne, Mike Mar 24
Hard to hear said Jim Davies as masks muffled vocal range

The following were guests of the Beverly Rotary club:

Someone in a hazmat suit from Peabody Club, maybe Sturgis Papagodis?
George Beilin from Hamilton club, social distancing increased to 20 feet.

Announcements:

President Dave has reached out to Mayor Cahill offering the assistance of Rotarians in any way they can help. As Montserrat is closed and the students dispersed, Mike asks that Rotarians color their hair, apply facial piercings and tats, and walk up and down Cabot Street looking at their cell phones. Pass the magenta dye, Ed! Got that nose ring, Neiland?

For those feeling isolated at home, Sean Goudreau is offering a social contact hotline. Call Sean anytime day or night and he will discuss in detail his adventures in mortgage interest rates and/or the intricacies of waxing his car. "Wax on Wax off", Sean!

During the hiatus of the Rotary BEV-CAM show "Hair Club for Mensch", Tom Alexander, Kevin Kelleher, and Tom Trudel will conduct an online seminar, "Extreme Social Distancing: How to Disappear in Plain Sight".

Virus-whisperer Lee Yaffa passes on this advice (raises his hands here): "Silencio attende gratia mio say o tempora o more. On my planet..."

In non-pandemic news, responding to Tom Brady's departure, Matt Blanchard asks, "Wonder Boy? Somebody need a Wonder Boy? Hey, Bill? Bet Tom never threw you a lobster bake, huh? Call me."

Mike Harrington speaking on the recently postponed Raucous Rotary event (will take place Oct. 30) said he had a dream that the event was a huge success and the club made over $800K. Most of money was made on Beer raffle and vigorous bidding of Live auction gift basket of face masks, gloves and hand sanitizer.

He thanked all for their help but was disturbed he saw many of you in his dream, which gave him willy's

Mike Jones announced Softball season is delayed until further notice. On a good note Mike pointed out this will be longest that team is undefeated since 1992 juggernaut team.

Incoming President Marshall said he is ready to cancel all meetings for his term for the good of the club.

...Thursday, Mar. 5, 2020

Bob Butterworth is giving tennis lessons to keep people in shape at High School courts. To keep safe distance instead of traditional rack-ets Historic Beverly has supplied muskets from American Revolution.

Mark Munoz and Scott Dougherty said business is booming in cleaning world. They also said they have a 55 gallon drum of industrial cleaning fluid which you can fill up if you choose. See Scott or Mark for details.

Sergeant-at-Arms

Thad Siemasko was this week's Sergeant. Bill Beckman collected money with a pool skimmer

Late fines

None, since no traffic slowed down anyone. Rick Ciolino did pay a few bucks for uncharted attendance.

Happy Dollars

Dianne Palter Gil - Happy that he who would not be named quarantined in NYC but with extra time has written 4 screen plays and 2 pilots. Ready for fall season

Derek Maxfield for unknown clean air smell in gym, since stank of out of shape patrons doesn't permeate the studio

Adam Winn who joined Newburyport Bank as seen in Salem News.

Diane Howard was pleased with the lunch today which was tossed salad. (tossed from 20 feet away mind you)

Fines

Larry Herman for being Larry

Face mask smackdown between Sarah, Dr Jamie and Joe Bubriski. Sarah sported KW red, Jamie had a rare LA Kings Stanley cup mask and Joe had a camo version saying "my way or highway". Joe won easily.

All those who refused to stay a measured 6 feet away from each other were fined handsomely, including Freddi, Jack Good and Al Temkin.

Rick and Connor Mooney for Plastic Bubble family enclosure

$1 per word for Maureen Trefry when asked why did she still go to work
"I needed to get away from Paul"

Speaker

Fergus Contagion on full body protection and how to keep safe in these troubled times. Bull horn failed at times so balance of talk was hard to hear.

Raffle

Rachel Hand had winning ticket But texted Pres Dave from across lot to choose for her. Dave pulled wrong card. The jackpot continues to climb.

Meeting adjourned at 12:35 since no one wanted to be near anyone else at this point.

Respectfully submitted,
The Murphy Twins and
Mucho Macho Lloyd Bridges

Not much of this is true so don't get nutty. Stay safe have whatever fun you can to get through all of this.
