BEACH SEASON?

President Dave always on the cutting edge (paper cutting) of fashion and all things culture is sporting the new look that will have other beach goers, if any, swooning. Nothing says healthy than a bronze god relaxing on the beach reading the Op-Ed section of the local newspaper. You will find a new found respect for Homer Simpson as well or some odd reason. Be like Dave if you can. We recommend sunblock still be used, be safe, wear your mask, and pass the tanning butter.

Last time at the Beverly Rotary Club...

Meeting was called to order by President Dave Olson at 12:15.

Pledge of Allegiance was recited followed by Matt Piaker leading us in "God Bless America" (still a work in progress) and an invocation led by The Reverend Julie Flowers.

Happy Birthday

"Happy Birthday" was sung for Pat D'Agostino and Elizabeth Macomber.

The following were guests of the Beverly Rotary club:

David Deutsch - District
Becky Beckman - Guest of Bill Beckman
Mironda Meyer - Today's speaker

Announcements:

Ed Chill (typo intended) gave us a financial update following the Board of Directors meeting. The bottom line is that the foundation is still in good shape despite the swings in the financial markets. Funds are sufficient to continue with planned grants and scholarships.

The board has also given a $5,000 emergency grant to the Beverly YMCA to support Day Care for first responders and $1,000 to Beverly Bootstraps to which the District gave a $500 matching donation.

Dave also talked about coming up with a payment method for raffles, happy bucks and fines. Brian D'Apice made a suggestion to create a "retainer" of sorts - this idea seems to have made traction. More details to follow

The Cards to the workers at Bootstraps was a success.

Bootstraps is also seeking volunteers to check in with the elderly and others who may be home alone.

Lee Yoffa and Derek Maxfield are sponsoring a "Peanut Butter Smack-down"

Sergeant-at-Arms Matt Piaker had double duty as our crooner and Sergeant this week. He gave out $5 fines to just about everyone

Chet for eating his hummus unmuted
Thad S. for Being Late

Derrick Maxfield for his hairline "recession"

Sarah MacBurnie Liporto for looking like she's getting ready to rob a stage-coach

Bankers, Boaters and dog-walkers
Lee Yoffa for learning Italian while quarantined - English will be next Sue Gabriel for being Wonder-woman

Al Temkin for hoarding hairspray

Scott Dougherty for working his way through his Grateful Dead bootleg concert tapes - he's up to 1974 already

Mike Harrington for watching every show on Netflix

Speaker:

The Guest Speaker for the week was Mironda Meyer from Tower Garden Upright Gardens

She told us all about upright or vertical hydroponic gardening. It's great for those of us with limited space for a traditional garden. You can learn more about her product at Mirondameyer.townergarden.com

Meeting Adjourned at 1:00:

Respectfully Submitted by Nick Biancucci, Scribe.

Earth Day doodling

Since we can't go out and do a whole lot of Earth Day activities this year on Wednesday, we will be releasing a coloring book of various nature scenes, Beverly locales and of course Rotary related nature. From the minds of the executive board, this promises to be a welcome to parents and kids alike. For parents they'll get a break as their children get to draw and doodle for an hour and score that long awaited nap. For kids they'll get to show their artistic side and get a soft serving of Rotary kool-Aid (no high fructose sugar added). As an added motivator they can send in their favorite coloring project and winners will get gift cards to Art Supply Wholesale. Stay tuned coming out in the next day or so.

Feel free to color the below image of our Rotary Garden. You don't have to stay in the lines either. Stick it to the man.
