Weak Words

The word for week is LAMBENT; licking, playing about, touching lightly. Our dictionary uses the phrase "a lambent flame" to mildly describe this adverb. We can think of a thousand and one other uses, many of which are unprintable, highly innovative and acrobatic. Lewd lips sink ships. Man overboard. Thanks DG

First Book

Last week Cecilia had the honor of signing our first book for the Young Adult section at the Library. The book is called The Hazel Woods and we haven't read it yet, finishing up the Curious George saga at the moment. Every time we have a speaker we will donate a book in their name to the library. Year of Literacy starts with page one of reading.

Words from Bremen

Hallo Rotarier,
Es ist so eine Freude, wieder in meiner zweiten Heimat Beverly zu sein. In den Bergen war am Meer und alle Orte dazwischen. Nein, ich bin noch nicht verheiratet, aber eines Tages nehme ich an. Ich wurde gebeten, eine kurze Kolumne für die Sprocket einzureichen, aber der Redakteur vergaß zu fragen und es musste gedruckt werden. So glücklich zu hören, wenn Sie wollen, dass ich zu übersetzen bitte fragen Sie mich, ich werde Ihnen die doppelte Wahrheit sagen.
- Svenja

Lobsters Unite

Next week we will NOT meet in these hallowed halls but on the lake in Essex for a first Lobster bake in years. Resurrected from the Blanchard Family jewels, perhaps this will become a new yearly tradition. If you haven't responded please do TODAY so you don't miss the boat. Plus our new District Governor Joan Arseneault will be visiting our club and lay down the gauntlet. You owe it to yourself to attend. bring your own beverage (strong or mild) and bug spray if you're squeamish. It will be a great time please jump in to the lake Jason Vorhees is not at this water.

Welcome back Department

We welcome back member Tara Whalen who just couldn't resist the song of the Rotary sirens who beckon all who have tasted the forbidden fruit of Rotary. Tara is now with Keller Williams and is excited to be back and see all the pathetic faces and people she came to know over her first stint as a Rotarian. Welcome Back - Mr Kotter

ONE GIANT STEP FOR DAVE

President post is just like walking on the moon, dusty and cold!

Houston, we have a problem... roger, Houston what's the issue... the news kiosk has yesterday's paper, out... roger, Houston, we're trying to get a current one delivered, out... I'm the friggin' editor I demand better service, out...

Then and Now dept.

What has changed in 6 years? Cecilia is still beautiful and smart, Jose has grown a beard and a few inches, plus straight A's at Endicott. Moiph is still a damn fool, so basically Cecilia and Jose have grown, Moiph is stuck in a rut of molasses.

Last week at the Beverly Rotary Club...

President Dave Olson started his first official meeting promptly at 12:15

Guests for the week were:
Cecilia Buffenoir, the speaker, who was a guest of Peter Frasca
Heidi Ushakoff, guess of Lex Jose Cermano, guest of the club
Betsy Manzelli, speaker and guest of the club
Leslie Gould led us in the Pledge of Allegiance
Diane and Freddie performed "Those Lazy Hazy Crazy Days of Summer" for us
Sarah MacBurnie led the invocation

"Happy Birthday" was sung for Chuck Patterson, Freddie and Rachel

Announcements:
July 25th's meeting will be a Clambake at the family home of Matt Blanchard in Essex. The cost is $35 for surf and turf. Please rsvp to Jackie
August 8 will be Senior Day at Lynch Park. Volunteers are needed to serve ice cream
August 16 is "Almost Queen". It may be too late to get tickets, but you can still ask Jackie.
Aug 27 at 6:00 will be an evening meeting on the deck at Danversport. Sell Tickets!
Tara Whelan was re-incarnated as a real estate agent and re-inducted into Rotary

Brian "Moiph" Murphy was the Sergeant
Jim Davies and Scott Dougherty were fined for being late.
Matt Blanchard has $100 Happy Bucks for getting engaged ("finally", remarked his mother)

Diane was happy to visit you-know-who in NYC

Jim Davies was happy to announce his 59th Wedding anniversary. Neiland Douglas was too!
Derrick had not-so-happy-bucks for losing a round of golf to Matt Piaker
Jamie came back from a 3-day wedding in Italy
Marshall was happy that his daughter is in Nairobi
Dr. Gill proud and a little sad that his son is off to Okinawa for 3 years.

Jillian had 2 kid-free days that she spent at the casino
All of the room's blondes were fined because Jackie confirms that they DO have more fun
Jose took the Dave Olson quiz - to which we learned all the answers were "give me a minute to think about it over a beer"

The Speaker was Cecilia who was our Rotary Exchange student in 2012. She described her life as one that made us all extremely jealous - at least all of those who love to travel and drink wine. She is in the midst of completing her second master's degree in International Business. She has traveled to China, Japan and all around Europe and made a special stop in Beverly. She will graduate in 2020.

Raffle
Moiph drew the lucky raffle ticket, but not the lucky card.

Beverly Robotics team Thanks

Mr. Olson and all of the Beverly Rotary, We received your check for $250 today at the Beverly High School. I want to extend our gratitude and appreciation for the support that you and the entire Rotary have shown the BHS Robotics team again this year! The funds are much needed to make the $5000 entrance fee and have other money for tools and equipment. Please find the attached photo of our team. Thank you again!
