DO, Week Words

The word for this week is VOCIFERATE; to cry out with a vehemence, a violent outcry. We can find a mess of things to cry about, especially after the evening news, and tonight we will put those vocal cords to a test. We will see if the house can stand some primal screaming. The neighbors might not, but we will have some beers ready for them when they come calling to see if the fridge fell over on our toe, or what

Book Corner

Book(s) of the week courtesy of Lyla and Jude Gould who rocked the Lobster Bake with their stories and generosity. Pictured with proud mom Leslie and President Dave, this was about the only real biz at this dinner meeting

Ice cream Social and Lobsterfest Day Volunteers

Ice Cream Social

Sharks sightings have been reported on North Shore, and they are mostly at the Ice cream Social we are hosting on Aug 8th. Looking for volunteers to help scoop and serve the predator seniors who come to this event every year. We have about 10 so far but could always use more. Around 1-1:30 after our regular meeting.

Lobsterfest/ Homecoming

The Beverly Rotary Club has booth at Lynch Park in Beverly during Beverly Homecomings Lobster Festival on Wednesday August 7th. We are looking for Beverly Rotary Members to attend the Beverly Rotary Booth from 10-3 during the day. Please let me know if you can come down and spend one hour at the booth.

This is always a fun time for the Beverly Rotary Club to interact and meet people at the event and community. Brian Murphy is providing his corn hole game along with information and boards showing the community all the great things Beverly Rotary does locally and around the world.

Let me know if you can attend the Beverly Rotary Booth for an hour and what time you'd be there. Please email me at RMooney@Sterling-insurance.com

Thank you and very much Appreciated!

Last week at the Beverly Rotary Club...

Meeting called to order at 5:40 by Dave Olson
John Shuka led the pledge
Song led by Jackie rap
Invocation - Matt Piaker channeling Jack Good

- Events
8/8 Senior day- Lynch Park
- 8/16 Almost Queen cover band
- 8/27 Evening on the deck at Danversport

Events
On a sweltering summer night on the lake we were blessed with the hospitality of Matt Blanchard and his family for what could be an annual event. beautiful senary, lovely sunset, as well as a table full of apps, drinks and merriment for all to enjoy.

Dave Olson kept the proceeding short since hunger was in the air. Introduced DG Joan Arseneault who wore matching outfits with Dave although different sizes. Brief words from Joan about all the great thing she expects from us.

Literacy year hit new heights as Lyla and Jude spoke of their lemonade stand in Gloucester that turned a profit and then turned over those profits to... "who else?" Rotary. They had the honor of signing this weeks books.

When Matt ran the dinner bell all came a running for some lobster, steamers, corn and for those who enjoy meat burgers and tube steaks. Everyone staked out their spot and chowed down. ice cream cake followed . An absolutely great time was had by all. The sun started to set then the swarms of no see-ums and bugs cousins stated to gather which was the only thing that could break it all up.

Huge thanks to matt and Stephanie and matt's family for hosting this new rotary gala. Whats coming up next? Who knows Dave is crushing it when it comes to meetings.
