GREAT FUN! GREAT CAUSE! GREAT FOOD!

Okay two out of three ain't bad. At Danversport Waterfront (Where you are right now) We will have our next big thing on Friday March 13. We will be entertained by Howl at The Moon who find themselves with more time at Patriot Place these days since Patriots are out! You'll get loads more info coming soon, but we needed to fill some space in the Sprocket. Stay tuned party time, excellent, with NO GARTH!

Bell Ringing

The pageantry, the glory, the glory! We did do a nice little bell ringing service project last time we sort of met. Stop and Shop, Shaw's and Henry's Markets were the locations of our annual Bell Ringing. With a new team at Salvation Army they came early for once, weather wasn't too cold but you had to dress proper. Mark Brislin was able to hold off Nor'easter Herman at Stop and Shop while down the road at Shaw's Jo and Mike relived Carmen and Moiph who entertained plenty of donors. Big question is what location took in most cake? We differ to Jack, well?

Last Year at the Beverly Rotary Club...

Frates Plungers

Some of us ended 2019 by doing additional good, participating in the final Plunge For Pete sporting our commemorative Softball Jerseys with Frates #3 on back. Not only did these plungers help raise money for the cause but showed that Rotary, has been helping the Frates since the very beginning. Not sure of water temp but it wasn't tropical. Thanks to Marshall, President Dave, Walter, Matt and Dylan for rocking the world. Plus if you recall the last Sgt. routine from Matt raised $1700 for the cause. Zoinks!

Last Time

Last time we met the High School Jazz Band rocked our world with great music and a cavalcade of ugly sweaters that impressed. Sandy and Nadine were thanked for their year long service to us, Adam Costa of the HS band also took some funds from us with pleasure and most importantly Thad and Dianne proved that Rotarians can get their swerve on by a tango on the NYC dance floor.
