No Superbowl Squares this year ☹

Sergeant - Mighty Matt Piaker

Matt put aside his usually acerbic wit and opened the floor to happy bucks. Many, if not all Rotarians ponied up $20 - $100 and shared stories of what democracy means to them.

Between the happy bucks and Carmen, Neiland and Peter having birthdays recently, the annual fundraising goal has been reached. (Not really, still waiting for Jim Davies' birthday)

Worldwide Adventures of Handly

I had a brief encounter with Sean Connery as an assistant gaffer on the Bond film, "Diamonds are Forever" and perhaps changed the course of breakfast foods forever. Mr Connery was a big star and my contact with him was brief, but I did have many deep conversations with much of the other cast members. Lola Larson and Trina Parks who portrayed Bambi and Thumper gave me loads of advice on making it as a Hollywood star. I even met Ernst Blofeld (Charles Grey) and we discussed the merits of his role in Rocky Horror Picture Show. One day on a break during shooting I was talking with another asst. gaffer, "Big John", and we struck up a vigorous conversation about the merits of breakfast sausage vs dinner sausage. We were interrupted by cast member Jim Dean who educated us that "a breakfast sausage is an excellent source of protein to jump start your day". Big John took exception to this, but Jim and I hit it off right away, we had many lengthy conversations on set about women, wine, the Crimean War and many other thoughts. On the spot Jim took out his guitar and he and I penned "Big Bad John" as a tribute to our ego hurt friend, the song went to #1 on the country charts. We also toyed with craft service area trying out various recipes for sausage. We talked of forming a partnership after filming to fulfill our dream.. Unfortunately I was fired for fraternizing with the talent before filming ended. Jim took it and ran with it, starting Jimmy Dean Sausages, making a fortune. He did send me ten pounds of sausage every Christmas in lieu of stock until his death in 2010. Who knew we would change the world. Until next time, enjoy those sausages.

Albert 1921

Decide the Doo!

It's been almost a year and time has come for Moiph's hair to be cut. One lucky winner will decide what is the look you want to see on his cabeza!

Moiph 2021

Comparisons to Albert Einstein's hair have not gone unnoticed over the past year. In Albert's honor I will allow one person to dictate what kind of doo (temporary) I get. Money raised will be put towards the scholarship program, since Albert would have wanted it that way. This will happen live during a meeting so you can see the result in real time. Haircut will be administered by a qualified beautician with your direction to avoid any mishaps. For those wise enough you could perhaps get two looks as the hair gets cropped down to a pre-Covid level. You can choose from any of these samples or one of your own.

Dave Olson

Rush Hour

80's Punk

Moe Howard

Snoop Dogg

Offers for a starting bid of $100 have been circulating but we can do much better than that. If you can't stomach that kind of bid any amount of donation will be put to the scholarship fund. This is a once in a lifetime event since not sure if hair will even grow back at my age. Only restriction, face is off limit goatee stays, otherwise any kind of doo is welcome. Was hoping to do this event on our meeting of January 21st. Need to confirm with my cutter about safety and safe distance etc, who by the way is Nancy Marciano... YES she of the Carmen Marciano empire.

Look at it this way, easy fundraiser and you don't have to do anything except enjoy the spectacle. Screen grabs are encouraged. Go ahead make my day.

Moiph - aka Albert Einstein, The Dude, George Custer, Doc Brown, Professor Longhair, Covid cutie or Jackass, you make the call.
