Worldwide Adventures of Handly

Did I just hear Johnny Rose on SCHITT'S CREEK say, "I beat out Richard Branson for it at a Kaminsky auction." To hear our fellow Rotarian Frank get a shout out on cable TV reminds me of my early media inspiration: MATLOCK. True, I was stationed at the embassy in Kafiristan at the time and broadcasts were catch-as-catch-can over Voice of America but Matlock's one gray three-piece suit, three generations of Ford Crown Victoria, and penchant for hot dogs set the high bar for my future legal practice. But, Marshall, you might ask, Ben Matlock practiced in Atlanta - how did you end up in Beverly? GAWK! A question worthy of a Matlock cross! Perhaps you'll remember the episode DOUBLE CROSSED AT PRIDE'S CROSSING when Matlock teamed up with CANNON (Frank Cannon, he of the one windbreaker size XL, Lincoln Continental with "mobile phone", and knowledge of gourmet cooking and several languages). Both crime fighters donned scuba gear to undo foul deeds off Rice's Beach. That sealed the deal. I arrived in Beverly within the year and hung my shingle off Cabot Street. I'd have to wait several more years for the mobile phone. Stay healthy, my friends! True. Johnny was referring to Moira's coat. Season 2, Episode...uh, its all a blur...they just keep showing the next episode before I can turn the damn thing off. Carla, why do we have three remotes? Which one makes it stop?

Anyone under 40 know who these stars are?

Zoom with Beverly Rotary

A cavalcade of Rotarians who made the treacherous journey across the bridge of Zoom to join our friends in Salem for a joint meeting. Include a rare sighting of Mayor Cahill, A newly minted grandmother again, and the most rare triple freep of Barry Sullivan who as a former member will be joining our crew again when weather gets better. Plus you have Rick Mooney channeling Clint Eastwood in lower right, feel lucky, do you punk?
