100 Years of Fellowship and Service

That deserves a Celebration..... and, YOUR Participation!

First, we're having a party to mark the years. That's today, Thursday, February 25th at 7:00 p.m. for a virtual toast to the Club.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/81423714450?pwd=aHNWRDZEK0VKYzZXK0d4TDJCTWVCUT09>

Next, we'll have lots of ways throughout the year to serve and connect with the community

O

We want Club members to perform lots of service this year. Let's get out and show SERVICE ABOVE SELF in action. Do it with the Club or on your own. Track and report your hours so we can mark every 100 hours. We're planning with the City on a renovation project for the Gazebo on the Beverly Commons as our major project.

ONATE

Let's all give at least $100 to the Club this year. You can do it in small $10 increments or if you can, in lots of $100 increments.

ELIVER

We're planning all kinds of fun ways to mark the year, but we need YOUR help. We're planning a scavenger hunt, a time capsule, a big showing at the Holiday Parade, a birthday party at the end of the anniversary year (hopefully) and lots of other activities. Get involved.

OCUMENT

Use your social media to share how much being a Rotarian is important to YOU. Let's show the community what we're all about this year.

Zoom with Beverly Rotary

May you be in heaven a half hour before the Devil knows your dead! Although in Rick Ciolino's case might not happen. Some familiar faces, some repeats due to screen grab snafu. Most importantly we have the top of Ed Cahill's head which in County Cork is hallowed ground.

Worldwide Adventures of Handy

Bottom o' the morning to ya, Boyo O'Rotarian... It was one hot day at Disney World and the line to Space Mountain was clocking "To Infinity and Beyond" when I noticed a winding alley. A wee sign beckoned to the "Darby O'Gill and the Little People" Leprechaun Kingdom Ride. Say what? My official guidebook made no mention of a ride paying homage to that mid-20th century Disney opus which ransacked Irish culture while marking the screen debut of Sean Connery. But there was no line. There was nobody. Luck of the Irish! I hopped on the boxy cart only to be thrown backwards as my tumbil lurched and screeched upward as it climbed to that emerald green mountain lair. We were following Darby's runaway horse, Cleopatra, who was actually a poocha, a shapeshifter, leading us to King Brian Connors and his leprechaun subjects. At the peak of the mountain, doors bust open ala Tower of Terror and I realized my cart - which is now the Banshee's Death Coach - is poised to plummet 10 stories. Connery appears on a hang glider as 007. "Let's give the folks what they came to see," he shouts in a Scotch burr that forever resisted an Irish lilt. Instantly we're rappelling down the north face of Skellig Michael battling a chorus line of banshees and the headless Dullahan. Even James Bond seemed outmatched but Captain Jack Sparrow swings over from Pirates of the Caribbean to lend a swashbuckle. To no avail. The rocky shore was roaring towards me... I woke in a green sweat. Was it the green cabbage or the boiled beer? Or just another Pandemic Night's Dream? Allow me to put some swagger in my bleary morning stagger and offer a timely Irish Blessing: "Stay healthy, my muckers, and next year we'll celebrate this holiday together, properly or improperly, whatever strikes your fancy." Till then,
