WHAT WILL FUTURE LOOK LIKE?

LUNCHES

In lieu of traditional meats and cheeses, due to worldwide ban in 2035, Lunches will be served in individual serving pod cup. The composite lunch have been scientifically engineered in a clean lab to be both nutritious and appealing to any taste. Made from plant based GMO free vegetables, legumes and sea kelp, they will provide the daily recommended nutrition standards set by USDA. Desserts have been banned due to sugar shortages in Cuba.

ROTARY DRESS CODE

Approved by Rotary International, all Rotarians will be required to wear uni jumpers in the rich marigold color. Pockets will be provided for Bitcoin to pay dues, fines, and happy bits. Material is a composite environmentally sound being made from 100% post consumer waste. Uni's can be worn at any time, is washable and adds 4 degrees Celsius to the inner core of the wearer. Not suitable for extreme weather conditions, immersion in water or any other viscous liquid.

SERVICE PROJECTS

AI cyborg biomechanisms will now do all the hard labor involved with service projects to avoid injury and being "gassed" from organic biomass units. The AI cyborgs can be programmed by owner to take on personality of owner if they choose. Still in experimental testing, RI feels safe until Cybernet creates an advanced cyborg which takes over earth and destroys humanity a la Terminator movies. We can't predict future we can only warn about renegade cyborgs.

Next Week's Speaker

Rob Cerandulo of 128 Cycles and his newly opened museum of cycles and scooters plus road and bike ephemera, called The Cycles Classic Cafe Museum. Rob will be speaking to us with a LIVE walk through his museum on Brimbal Ave. At left are just a few of the beauties in his collection. Cycles and Scooters dating back 100 years are on display. Along with many other great finds over the years. It will be a great program for all to enjoy. Strap on your helmets!

Pay for lunch, happy dollars, or just a good old donation. Keep the dream alive

100 Years of Fellowship and Service

That deserves a Celebration..... and, YOUR Participation!

First, we're having a party to mark the years. That's today, Thursday, February 25th at 7:00 p.m. for a virtual toast to the Club.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/81423714450?pwd=aHNWRDZEK0VKYzZXK0d4TDJCTWVCUT09>

Next, we'll have lots of ways throughout the year to serve and connect with the community

D O We want Club members to perform lots of service this year. Let's get out and show SERVICE ABOVE SELF in action. Do it with the Club or on your own. Track and report your hours so we can mark every 100 hours. We're planning with the City on a renovation project for the Gazebo on the Beverly Commons as our major project.

D O N A T E Let's all give at least $100 to the Club this year. You can do it in small $10 increments or if you can, in lots of $100 increments.

D E L I V E R We're planning all kinds of fun ways to mark the year, but we need YOUR help. We're planning a scavenger hunt, a time capsule, a big showing at the Holiday Parade, a birthday party at the end of the anniversary year (hopefully) and lots of other activities. Get involved.

D O C U M E N T Use your social media to share how much being a Rotarian is important to YOU. Let's show the community what we're all about this year.

Worldwide Adventures of Handly

Ah, the thrill of sailing down the Volga as mother Russia beckons. One summer I was on a Koch, sailing towards Volograd. Our captain stopped in a quaint village called Volsk. As it turns out the citizens were all gathered in the square for the annual Roikka Trotsky Festival, which celebrates Chess, Vodka and Sprats. As an observer I found the game to be intriguing. You make a chess move, shoot Vodka then eat a Sprat. Contestants were eliminated at regular intervals by reigning champion Dimitri Leonid Bortnik. I snickered at a move a bit too loudly and caught the attention of Dimitri's ire! The hostile crowd forced me to the gaming table in what turned out to be a battle royal. I always fancied myself an accomplished chess player so it was game on. Dimitri opened with the Latvian Gambit as basically a bullying move. I countered with the Slav defence which drew gasps from the assembled. We battled back and forth with move and countermoves. The Vodka and Sprats were consumed with equal vigor. He took my queen in a slip of concentration and all looked lost. I pulled out a desperate move with bishop to kings 4, and asked him what he thought of Bobby Fischer? This obviously threw him into a fit of rage, and he went for the kill with the daring Von Schlugal Gambit! In his rage he failed to notice my bishop at queen 3. Immediately he realized his folly tipped his king, and the game was over. The locals carried me on their shoulders for dethroning their 15 time champ. I was toasted as Comrade Handly throughout the night. I'll always fondly remember a vigorous chess game, superb Vodka and a belly full of Sprats. Ah mother Russia embraces all who lap up her bounty. Until next time

CHAMPAGNE TASTING EVENT

If you stayed on from Maia Goselin giving her presentation of Champagne tasting, was both knowledgeable and entertaining at the same time. We learned that various terms for Champagne Bottle sizes include Piccolo, Magnum, Jeroboam, Balthazar and the ever popular Nebuchadnezzar. Methinks the real show started after about 40 minutes in when the tiny bubbles took effect. the Bob Murphy's and Rachel hand's family were out dueling each other in laughter and mirth, with a touch of silliness. Demonstration of "Saber-ing" were explained and thank GOD not tried on the oysters at the Hand home. All in all a fun night, learned something about Champagne, Prosecco and drinking in general. No people were harmed in the drinking event, but work production was down across some businesses
