SO HOT YOU LITERALLY MELT

WAIT A MINUTE! I invented the melting images years ago (see above painting) i also invented the umlaut but thats another story. You'll be hearing from my lawyer, MR LAWYER!

Due to extreme heat my $5 words have now extended to $7 and change. It will cool off at some point and go back to normal exchange rates.

Apologize in advance for slurrriing.

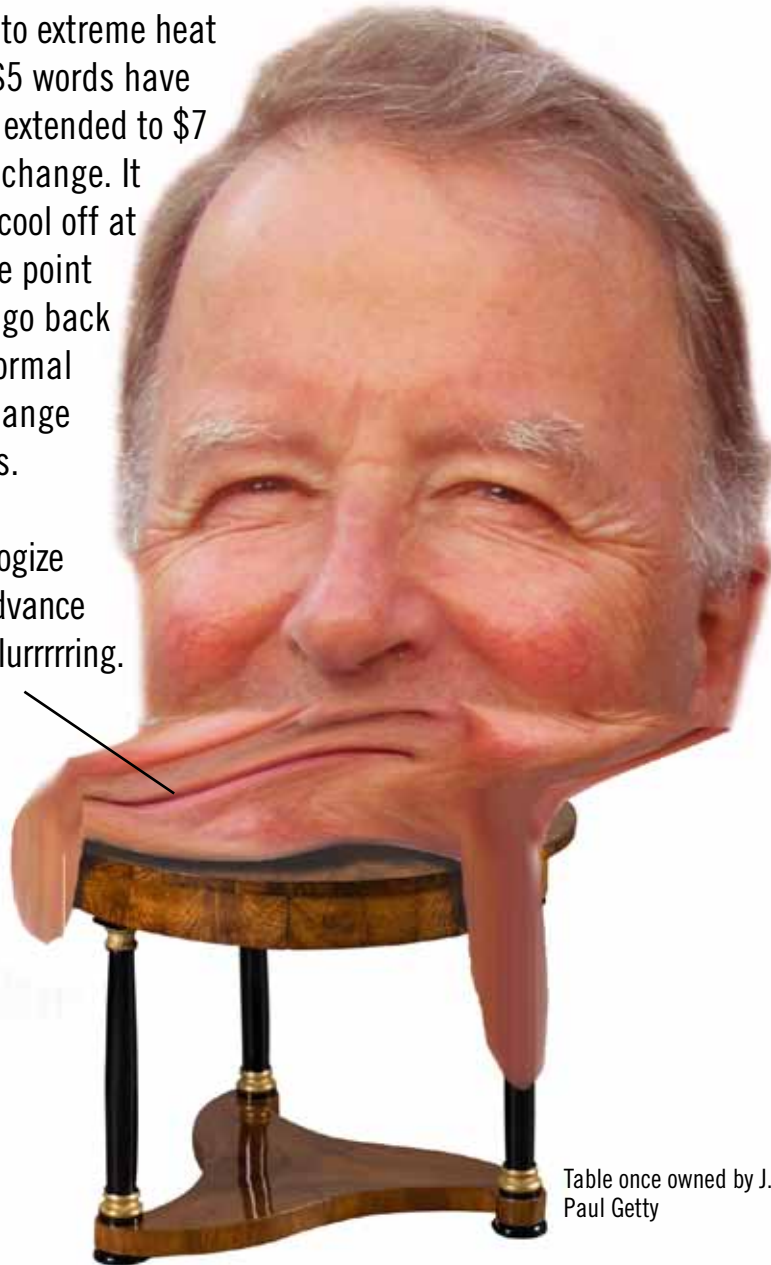

Table once owned by J. Paul Getty

DALI! Shut yer yap I was melted by a Kansas school girl back in 1939 before your "dripping period". If anyone is planning on legal action or unleashing an army of flying monkeys it will be ME! Plus the fact that I'm green gives me plenty of reason to sue in every direction. Don't get me ticked off Dali, you will be crushed-WW of W!!!!!

Worldwide Adventures of Handly

Hang gliding off the coast of Big Sur, California, a weak screech coming from the cliffs caught my attention. I was able to view a mother condor in distress with her chick. Soaring closer I determined the rare birds needed some nourishment right away. I pointed down my hang glider and swooped in on a school of salmon. Luckily able to catch a fish and caught an updraft to rise back up to the nesting mother and chick. I discarded my apparatus and rappelled down to the nest. Instinctively started biting off chunks of Salmon and masticated the food to the proper consistency to feed the chick. I was observed by a scientist from the UC Irvine Ornithology Department who championed my methods to help conserve these noble birds. And the Condor conservation movement was born. Until our next adventure - Handly
