I WANT YOU!

Uncle Marshall wants you to step up your Rotary GAME! Attend a Zoom meeting, do a service project or rescue a cat from a tree. Just because we can't meet doesn't mean you sit around.

Last week at the Beverly Rotary Club, Thursday July 2

First Meeting of President Marshall's tenure. So begins our period of Marshall Law

Meeting was called to order by President Marshall Handy at 12:15

Pledge of Allegiance was led by Diane Howard

Jack Good led the invocation

"Happy Birthday" was sung for Chuck Patterson

The following were guests of the Beverly Rotary club: Heidi Ushakoff, guest of Lex

Announcements:

Thanks to Eric Immerman and volunteers who helped with the service project to add window tinting to Family Promise.

Plans are underway to abandon the October gathering and replace it with an outdoor cook-out in August at Danversport.

Al Temkin reminded us about the virtual Reid's Ride

Brian Murphy reminded us that Service Projects are still going on through the pandemic.

Sergeant-at-Arms

Matt Piaker was this week's sergeant. All of his "targets" were at the beach. Matt shared some old photos and pondered what could have been had Jack Good been named Jack Evil instead.

Happy dollars and Announcements:

Moiph was happy that he and Brenda walked every street in Beverly. It's not clear if he walked against traffic.

There was no speaker this week. Jackie played a memorial slideshow of District Rotarians who passed away this prior year - including our own Don Kelly.

The slideshow did not include Arthur Collins who passed away in June. Art directed donations made in his name to the Beverly Rotary Scholarship Foundation. His son, Mike, recent past president of the Reading Chapter and Rotary Scholarship recipient will drop checks off for Marshall soon.

Meeting dismissed at 12:50

Respectfully Submitted,
Nick Biancucci

Family Promise window to your soul

Family Promise was the recipient of newish member Eric Immerman's idea to get sun blocking and privacy film placed on the windows at their Rantoul location. As you can see from the legs shown, nary a mocha Larry Herman leg anywhere to be found. Eric's idea will provide some shade and perhaps more importantly privacy for families who need to wait in the lobby. Looks like Rachel Hand who had the keys to the joint, Eric Immerman, Ken Krall, Tom Chatellier and Mike O'Brien lended their cutting and pasting talents, as well as newly minted Prez Marshall who supervised it looks like. We can't help but notice only one "official" Rotary shirt is seen. On back order I guess. Eric is going full on El Diablo. Rumor has it that the cat calls from drivers was overwhelming, but these legs have been honked at before, we're sure. Great job all for your service above self.

FUTURE IS HERE BEWARE OF BIG BROTHER!!!!!!

If you are minding your own business and big brother Ed Cahill pops up on you're Apple watch, you have two options: Scream or like us find an old Dick Tracy cartoon that has an eerily looking villain on Dick's watch called "Mike's Brother". A poetically offensive villain who wears ties and suits in 90+ heat. You maybe are being watched right now, go old school, go Jim Davies and use a sundial! A public service of Rotary International, plus a nice wrist.

YES, St. Peter's Dinner for you!!

Our team of cooks and servers provided a dinner for our friends at St. Peters last Sunday night, and will do so again this Sunday under the culinary delights of Sir Eric Immerman. Last week was Becky Beckman's baked beans in a broth. The food was so good the dinners needed to share with their friends, pictured at left. The take out (we can't say since it offends) N _ _ _ was very genial and happy to help the team dole out 40 dinners. Unfortunately no live photo were taken to protect the identity of the Greeks Capers who are in the witness protection. Perhaps this weekends team can take at least one pic? Service again before self, and yummy too.
