LAST WEEK SPEAKERS

Major Richard and Lola Sanchez spoke to us about the great work that Salvation Army does, especially in Salem and Beverly. What a dynamic duo working to make this a better place to live. We'll pay them back with our bell ringing on the 17th at various locations in and around Beverly. To answer question YES Lola is boss at home!

THANK YOUR LOCAL WAITSTAFF!!!

Week in and week out our servers Nadine and Linda do an exceptional job providing us with a smile and great service. Show your appreciation by giving back to them. At check in table there will be a place to drop off your appreciation. Any amount is appreciated, please be generous

Speaker:

Our speaker this week is Major Richard Sanchez from the Salvation Army. A Salvation Army officer for more than 20 years, Major Sanchez was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. City life exposed him to different cultures, languages, and socio-economic variety. The Salvation Army is known worldwide as a nonprofit charity. However, its mission is motivated by love exemplified in its old slogan, "heart to God, hand to man". Major Sanchez has served in NY, NJ, and Mass, to many nationalities, ages, communities, and cultures. He loves learning, hiking, and traveling with his wife Lola who is also an officer with the same rank, experience, and training.
