CHIEFS WIN??

Well someone won and that means we have 4 winners in our Big Game Fun Squares.

We cannot give out earnings this week due to co-organizer Moiph in California spending new found cash!

We will dole out week 2/23 meeting so we can take pics.

In the meantime think positive except for the hate you throw at Eagles and Eagles fans, no one likes them anyway.

Plus mid western cities when they win don't burndown their own stinking city!
Go Chiefs

Speakers:

Dr. Kenann McKenzie-DeFranza

Explained stories throughout her life and related them back to when to hold your ground and when to chill. Growing up in Guyana then moving to the US when she turned 7 was a big adjustment. Her mother took on a part time job with a private school to help her through her elementary school years. She found ways to connect with her father who still lived in Guyana through music. She realized that her passion was being an advocate for children and sharing that passion showing that everyone deserves love.

Lorinda Visnick

We started with an exercise to write down 3 things you want people to describe yourself as and 3 things that you would describe Lorinda as. She explained her background growing up in Michigan and the expectations of many of her peers not going to college/university. She was the 5th of 6 children. She used sports, mainly basketball, as a way to advance her education. She decided to attend BU and played basketball there. She quickly learned that becoming a math major was not for her and switched to computer science and gained the title "computer nerd". She is now working on her advanced degree and communicated that everyone should continue to learn and grow.

Raffle

Peter Hersee had the right ticket but wrong picked card. Jo Broderick Joker lives on for another week.

Meeting adjourned at 1:30

Submitted by Paul Drinkwater soon enough dad x2

LAST WEEKS SPEAKERS

Dr Kenann McKenzie DeFranza and Lorinda Visnick spoke to us last week on their journey's to Rotary and what happened prior to Rotary as well!. You can read in regular notes their thoughts etc. What we discovered is, that when Editor is lazy and zooms in to take a picture it is blurry, dark and just plain lousy. Close up is much better and we will try to get him to do better next time
