The Speaker for the week: This week we had two reclassification speeches.

Chris Haight talked about his humble beginnings growing up in Salem and finding his passion in computers and tech. Had a mentor in one of his teachers who took extra time to stay after school and make Chris into the tech guru he is today. Message was we are all mentors to others to learn and be the best.

Bill Scanlon was our second speaker and he talked about his life growing up in Dorchester, school at MIT and his career at "The Shoe". At times very difficult reducing workforce by 50% to keep company afloat. After he was let go by big company goo, Louise talked him into running for Mayor. At the time Beverly was a cess-pool and it needed a fixer. Bill was the guy to get Beverly back on track. Mayor for 20 years with a two year break. Want more? Buy his book and find out more.
