Speakers:

Sue Goganian: gave a heartfelt account of her journey from Boston to Wellesley to Bates College (didn't love Bates and left) to bar tending and keeping late nights, to discovering she needed to do something of meaning for work. Worked at the Old State house in Boston now Director of Historic Beverly.

Bob Murphy, graduated from Amherst College, kids went to UMass Amherst , the 2 are not to be confused. Moved to Beverly in 1976, bought Cabot theater with Magic Troupe for 110K. Murphys were founding members of the Magic Show. Bob spoke of working with his wife Pat. Lovely tribute to Pat and Bob's appreciation for her support in all his endeavors including the Appraisal business they owned for 40 years. Bob had the privilege of meeting folks in their homes and business via appraisal but with emotion spoke of how Rotary has always showed up for him.

The End.
