New Member.

Nathan Seavey, obviously pondering a large role down the road in Rotary. Sponsored by Sean Goudreau, so you know nothing about him. We will dredge out info on Nathan and pass along to you starved of information on new members and they're quirks!!!

Luck of the Irish

Jim and Carolyn sporting the green, and unknown sock wearer think they are lucky. Well they aren't, more like a cheeky monkey.

Last weeks speakers: Margaret Belmonte and Walter Hartford.

Come along and see the dark and mysterious world of real estate and financial planning. You get a whole lot more info if you read notes on other side of newsletter.

HEY! no mention of Follow Us to The Moon? Just did! Do your thing and make it work!

Last week at Rotary March 2, 2023

Meeting was called to order by President Mike Jones promptly at 12:15pm. Pledge of Allegiance was led by Thad Siemasko Prayer was given by Matthew Piaker

The following were guests of the Beverly Rotary Club: Nathan Seavey

Birthdays

Tom Chandelier has turned 73! We all wished him a Happy Birthday!

David Olson was our Sergeant at Arms:

There once was a man named Mike Who couldn't find much to like But the calendar crept toward June The date arriving none too soon That he'll tell us all to take a hike

There once was a woman named Sue Who didn't have much to do So we groveled before her And made her our leader And said we won't do it, so why don't you?

There once was a man name Marshall Who to long, fantastic stories was partial The details seemed beyond belief Offered more for comic relief Yet all we can do is marvel

There once was a man named Tom Whose band was the bomb While he got older His skills didn't molder The Henchmen still rock a New Jersey prom

There once was a woman named Sue Whose name was something new She was called a Costello By some thick-headed fellow Now that's Leslie's name too

Man, this club loves turkey Moist, not dry like jerky Let's give thanks to the artist

Whose films were the smartest And helped us sell that 40 pound birdie

Let's lift a glass to the doc To her, no question is a shock She recites the Periodic Table Better than I am able For trivia, there's no stronger rock

There once was a man named Kyle Who always arrived in style The way he dressed Was always the best But what turned the world on was his smile

There once was a woman called the Commish Who acted on Jonesy's every wish But he should shower her in flowers Because she's the one with all the powers Without her, he'd flop like a fish

There once was a man named Thad An artist like Van Gogh gone mad I must be losing my mind I'm going to say something kind He's really not that bad

Old Brian is a right funny bloke At our pretensions he likes to poke If it is laughter to which you aspire A taste for his wit you must acquire In the end, we're all the butt of his joke

There once was a man named Matt Who I never saw wear a hat He just wouldn't dare To mess up his hair And I just can't relate to that

Happy Fines:

Leslie G was very excited about the GBCC Gift Cards finally being available at many locations including Super Sub and Henry's market.

Walt K. was happy about Meals on Wheels and Tom C showed up with the Delivery! Service before self the Rotarian way.

Rich Tabbut's only daughter is getting married, very exciting! Jackie Rap is going to see Sean G dad at the Engine Room. (Sean had no idea his dad played?)

Matt B was happy to see Mayor Cahill

Brad Hunt was happy to be over his sickness

Larry H - Happy to be at the meeting, been a while.

Caroline Davies - Very happy for Leslie and the Chamber, said it was the best event they have been too!

Chris Haight - was very happy him and Leslie have been able to Ski almost every weekend this winter and they were able to bring Kyle Skiing and he made it back in ONE PIECE!

Adam Winn was glad the sprocket this week wasn't eaten by his Dog... LOL!

Paul G was happy to sell tickets for the Chamber, made over $125!!

Marblehead Bank hopeful Chambers checks will clear!

The speakers of the week were Margaret Belmonte and Walter Hartford:

Margaret was very nervous about this speech but she did great! She was born and breed in Boston, she has 10 siblings and her father was a firefighter. Margaret grew up in catholic schools and she believes that gave her a great foundation. She was taught at a young age to give and volunteer so becoming a Rotarian was in her blood. Her bloodline has over 150 generations of Firefighters and her oldest son is a Navy Seal. So, her family was always giving back. Margaret also mentioned she went to college when she was 17 and grew up less fortunate, however she worked very hard. She went to school originally for teaching and she taught for 2 years in Boston and 1 year in Beverly (Saint Mary's). In 1981 Margaret got her real estate license and this changed her life. She has been in Real Estate for 42 years. Recently she took her first trip to Israel and this was the trip of a lifetime for her.

Walter Hartford joined Rotary in 2019, he grew up in Newton. His Father worked for Raytheon for 42 years, he attended UMass for college. Walter by trade is a Financial Advisor. He is involved in many different organizations, boy scouts, Sierra, he is on the board for Grateful Friends. He always participates in the Polar Plunge. He has been to the Grand Canyon twice, he has been to Alaska and took a plane ride while he was there, visited San Juan and many more! Walter also worked for Fidelity in 1987. Walter lives by quotes: "I think too much about everything" - "Megaforce "All on the wheel, it all comes around" - and "Leadership is not by itself good or bad, leadership is a means. History has known no more charismatic leaders in the century triad Hitler, Stalin and Mow. The misleaders also inflicted as much evil and suffering on humanity as ever been recorded, but effective leadership doesn't depend on charisma. Dwight Eisenhower, George Marshall, Harry Truman were singularly effective leaders, but none have possessed any more charisma than a dead mackerel.
