The Speaker for the week -

We had 2 classification speeches.

PART 1

Johnson "God's Eagle" Obeke told us

about a very interesting international life. He spoke about learning the good feeling of giving at a young age and the long and winding road he took to eventually settle on the North Shore after being born and raised in Nigeria. Stints as a quartermaster in the US Army, as a computer guy in the dotcom boom/bust and as an executive in a human services company eventually led him to settle first in Danvers then ultimately to Beverly to raise his two boys.

PART 2

Tim Flaherty was born in Beverly and never left. He and his twin sister are two of 9 Flaherty kids. All of the kids were raised to give back to the community. Tim decided to give back on many levels. He ran the McPherson Youth Center when he was only 21 and spent 20 years in Beverly politics. He is now giving back as Executive Director of The Beverly YMCA.
