Maureen Trefry - bank pens
Walt Kosmowski - galumpkis
Ozzie - Tide pods

Rotary "Re-Classification" Speeches

Maureen Trefry

Member since 2002, took a shine to Rotary right away! From Iowa, raised in Minnesota don'tcha know. Lived in Germany 3 years, one son (Peter) is 28. Works in Wealth Mgmt. at Eastern Bank, helping folks plan for their financial future. She became the Club's 5th female president in 2017-18, and it was a wonderful experience (once). Remembers volunteering with Jack Good, and encouraged new members to "lean in" to Rotary...you get out of it what you put in. Maureen enjoys starring in the BRC theatre productions, where her natural acting talent is evident.

Lee Yaffa

Born in Brookline, raised in Dorchester, learned his share of tough lessons as a kid. Went to the BU school of communications intending to be a DJ, and started working on the school newspaper on the business side. Looking for national ads, but editors ran with nude photo on front page, so put the kibosh on that. Worked as managing editor at another publication and lived in Pittsfield, MA a few years, before returning to another job in Boston. Next part of career took him to an elementary school book publisher, where he married his boss, Cathy. They've been together 50 years! Started a business in Lynn in the 90's and moved it to Beverly. Joined Rotary in '94 thanks to Kevin Kelleher. The rest is history, and a beautiful one it was.

Raffle

Freddi pulled the card - no Joker.

Meeting adjourned at 1:34 pm.
Submitted by Ken Krall

Jim Davies shuttle kaput!

Yes it takes a village of Rotarians to jump start the Jim shuttle bus. We count 5 but could have been even more. Good news Peter Hersee came to rescue to take Jim home. Moiph shuttle needed a new starter, sucks to suck don't it.
