YOU GOT AN ITCH,
FOR GOD SAKE,
SCRATCH IT!!

We are now in the midst of our small fundraiser: SUMMER SCRATCH FEVER. We are asking each Rotarian to PLEASE buy a chance and get a friend to buy one. This is our challenge to you so we can sell all 100 of these chances.

Your name goes on a wheel and the winner gets 10-$50 scratch tickets. The $50 tickets give out the most wins!!!!

So do it now!!! SUPPORT YOUR CLUB!!!! Any questions, contact Jonesy or the Commish.

Last Week at Beverly Rotary

Sean started the meeting promptly at 12:15.

Sue Gabriel lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance.

No Song

Matthew Piaker recited a lovely reflection.

Brad Hunt and Joe Broderick had birthdays this week, we sang HBD to Jo.

Announcements

Mike Jones started off the announcements with a hearty reminder to join the gambling crowd and buy tickets to our Scratch Fever. Also suggested getting a friend to buy a raffle, too.

Nathan Seavey is looking for service project ideas and action plans. Think outside the box, the options are endless.

President Goudreau shared that the BRC Board is reaching out to members, who attend meetings less frequently, encouraging them to return. Jackie added we have an interesting list of speakers to entice attendance.

Sean read a couple kind hearted thank yous from Riley Rocks and Forever Friends.

Sergeant Jonesy

Who's Happy?!

Jackie has only 3 days left in her cast!

Marshall was happy to have his daughter, Ellen, as a guest and potential new member.

Nick had a wonderful time in the land of shining mountains, aka Montana.

Virginia was looking forward to jamming at a musical festival.

Brian experienced P-town's Carnival, his belongings will be returned shortly. Don't ask.

Al Temkin happily reported that Grateful Friends is back in a big way! And they'll be having a fundraiser in October.

Sergeant Mike led a couple Smack Downs with stripes and neon attire.

Connor was fined for still having Jonesy's golf bag.

Everyone without a name badge on was fined $5.

No speaker.

Raffle

Jo B had the lucky ticket but no luck on the draw.

Meeting adjourned at 1:00p.
Anne Curry, Scribe

Stripes!!!!

Not a Bill Murray movie of the 80's, the bespoke wear of Rotarians bucking for an invite to Met Gala next year. Diane wore a smart look with casual tuck into slacks, whilst Bob added a matching tie and handkerchief. Our first smackdown of the year and both were fined $10 for making us see double vision.

Pinky and the brain!!!

If you get the reference great, if not who cares. Virginia wore a striking bright pink neon garment, and Ellen had matching fingers and toes. We weren't quick enough to catch close up but take our word they matched. Second smackdown and my eyes still burn.

Like a fine wine!!!!

A table for two in the cozy grotto room at DYC, nothing could be more exciting. Did you know we have close to 100 years of service above self at this table. Oh yeah like a fine wine these two get better with age. Bon appetite!
