Last weeks Special guests
As we celebrated the lives of past Rotarians, we were graced with some of their family to celebrate, which was a huge treat for all of us to meet some of these folks we may or may not have known. They are all holding the photos of their loved ones. From top right going counterclockwise: Cailin Kelleher DeBaise, JoAnne Kelleher, Sue Good, Lisa Marciano and Julie Condon-Howell and her sister Suzanne.

Rotary Club Meeting Recap:
A Special Time of Remembrance

At our October 17 meeting, we gathered for the Second Annual Remembrance of Rotarians who have passed away. It was a moving occasion as we honored the contributions, stories, and memories of those who were an essential part of our Rotary family.

This year, we remembered:

Jim Davies

: Fondly remembered for his cheerful saying, "I love turkey," Jim always brought a smile to our faces.

Don Moran

: A dedicated member for 22 years, Don was a constant presence in our Rotary community.

Jack Good

: Jack's impressive record of 49 years of service with perfect attendance shows just how committed he was to Rotary and our community. His wife Sue was in attendance to honor his memory.

Dick "Doc" Wylie

: Doc made an incredible impact on Endicott College, turning it into a thriving institution. He was known for mentoring countless others toward successful careers.

John Kelleher

: Remembered by two Kellehers in attendance (insert names), John was a beloved member who will be sorely missed.

Don Kelley

: Always the life of the party, Don was someone nobody could ever say "no" to. As an auctioneer, he likely raised more money for local charities than anyone else. He had a knack for getting things done!

Carmen Marciano

: One of the original "good fellas" group, which met annually and raised funds to donate to a person or cause they voted on. Carmen, represented by his daughter Lisa, was known for making sure Don's restaurant orders didn't get out of control.

Tim Goldberg

: Following in his dad Bob's footsteps, Tim continued the family Rotary tradition. His brother Andy still carries that torch today.

Les Ray

: A Rotary member for an incredible 53 years! Les' son Dave is proudly continuing the family tradition of service.

Helen Lauenstein

: As the first female Rotarian in our club, Helen paved the way for many who followed. She served with distinction for 35 years.

John "Jake" Condon

: Represented by his daughters Julia and Suzanne. Known for his special care of neighbor Diane's shrubs and his enthusiasm for supporting all the "good ones" in politics.

In closing, Prez Sean reminded us that as Rotarians, we are all stewards of our community. Each of us plays a part in continuing the legacy of service and generosity left by those before us. He presented all guests with a Beverly Rotary Club book, celebrating our impact on the community and the people who make it possible.

Other Business

Diane opened the meeting with a beautiful rendition of "For Auld Lang Syne," setting a reflective and heartfelt tone.

Matt's convocation reflected on how Rotary is stitched together by each member's unique contributions. He described how we are the stitches in the fabric of Rotary, and as each stitch strengthens the whole, we follow in the "good footsteps" of those who came before us, creating an energy that others will one day follow after we have passed.

No birthdays this week.

Announcements:

Grateful Friends event on 10/22, the FR Committee will meet next week, and we still need locations for Toys for Tots drop boxes. High school students are decorating them.

Don't forget—Rotarians will be in front of First Baptist Church for Trick or Treat this Thursday! Let Brian or Jackie know if you can join.

Sergeant's Report:

Bill Beckman kept the room laughing as he fined Sue and Lisa—not for being late, but for the crime of actually being on time for once! Prez Sean didn't escape Bill's humor either, getting fined for indulging in two lunches that day (living large, we see). The real test came when Bill quizzed members on Rotary's Four-Way Test and articles from the latest Rotary Magazine — trying to find out just how many of us actually read it! Let's just say, some of us might need to brush up on our reading.

Happy Dollars

Prez Sean's guest, Kristy, proudly shared that she passed her nursing exam, and we all celebrated her success.

Raffle

Bill Beckman won the chance to pull the winning card; instead, in true fashion, was a huge loser

Meeting adjourned at 1:30
