Turkey Raffle Follow up

It wasn't long ago that the magic of the Turkey Raffle was still fresh in our minds. President Maureen picking along with auteur Murphy and Jim(Dylan) the Milkman. Photos of the Happy winner Mary Nagle with pasty uncooked version and a well bronzed Turkey just about the same shade as Larry Her-man mid summer tan. Color photos coming to Facebook soon when get time.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

DRIVING MISS DAISY!

President Maureen rides high in the Holiday Parade, as former President Bill Beckman has been reduced to a Livery Driver after a year of Glory. President Maureen also is enjoying the moment by starting the first moves of the Dougie. Many Rotarians were spotted in the parade although we missed Rev. Julie who may have been behind the Mac and Cheese box from our vantage point... sorry we missed you!

Beware President Maureen!
All glory is fleeting, come next fall you may be a meter maid!

Sage advice from

WHAT IN TARNATION ARE THESE PHOTOS ABOUT!

Anna Langstaff overjoyed to be front and center in Parade showing off Bookmobile with a song and dance number "Baby its cold outside" by Johnny Mercer

The boot on Dr Jamie's leg was just a beard for putting extra spoons in between toes to accomplish two things: 1. Getting extra scoops of stuffing and not lose control of plate, Or 2. get a better view of chewing gum that was left underneath tables by former dinners. Did you know we have two Rotarians sporting foot boots at press time?

Last week at the Beverly Rotary Club

Meeting was called to order by Salem Rotary President Jason Consalvo.

Raffle:

Salem winner- John Neely Trivia question from a previous meeting
Beverly winner- Lee Yaffa Trivia: what year was Salem founded?
Lee guessed 1682; correct year is 1626

Guests of the Beverly Rotary Club:

Frank Forte, Dr. Steve Hiersche, Sue Charochak, Coach Mordancy AD
Daniel Keefe, Cheer Captains Kait-lyn Shairs, Mary McDonald, Football captains Nick Berry, Clark Marchand, Nick Gonzalez, Lucy Jones guest of Dylan

Guests of Salem Rotary:

Mayor Driscoll, David Angeramo, football coaches and captains

Guest Speakers / Program:

- Beverly Mayor Mike Cahill: congratulated Mayor Driscoll on her re-election; thanked both Rotary Clubs for gathering; wished luck to both football teams

- Salem Mayor Kim Driscoll: hats off to the Hawthorne for delicious meal;

thanks Rotary Clubs for community support; wished luck to both teams

- Beverly High Football Coach Andrew Morancy acknowledges Mayors, AD, civic and educational leaders, Superintendent Dr. Hiersche, Salem Coach, Beverly Football captains, and Frank Forte for all he's done for football and the community.

- Salem High Football Coach Matt Bouchard: echoed gratitude for Rotary's support; recognized the remarkable tradition of the Thanksgiving meeting; recognized senior players and cheerleaders; thanked Mayor, AD, Principal, Superintendent, Coaching staff, Boosters, and his wife for all her support.

Maureen Trefry presented a check to the Salem Boosters Club

Jason Consalvo presented a check to the Beverly Boosters Club, and presented a (huge) $1,000 check in support of WellBoring to Maureen.
Meeting Adjourned:
1:10pm

Scribe of the week:
Lauren Belmonte

Wait staff tip reminder

The wait staff for our luncheons has been nothing less than glorious, you can show you appreciation by making a contribution in their honor to be presented at the 12.21 meeting. Please be as generous as you can. We suggest $20 in long green.

Pre gaming Luncheon

Not unlike a certain Turkey, Beverly was handed a loss on a platter by Salem in the 120th version of the "game". Although the loss stung after a less than stellar season the Beverly team could feel good in that a week earlier the Girls won the Powder Puff Game by about the same score. Plus no major injuries to any of the girls(except the Salem cheerleader who was on crutches) As Bill Scanlon has always said, the sun will come up tomorrow win or loss, just do your best, they did but came up short.

What we missed pass few weeks

New Member Corner

Our newest member is the delightful Jennifer Freedson, who comes to us from Chive, a tasty business on Rantoul Street. Jen has been a lifelong cook/chef ever since she made a 8 layer cake with her easy bake oven when she was 5. In addition to a world class gourmand she is also a collector of Wooden Shoes and the rare #3 pencils. Get to meet her she is nice and could possibly bribe you with baked treats. Being pinned by sponsor Diane Howard who was on crutches but is doing much better now.

Hawthorne Hotel Memories

On left is President Maureen with Salem President Jason Consalvo and photo bomb by Mayor Cahill. We were supposed to have a photo of the giant check for $1000 for Well Boring but Salem tucked it away before we could snap, and they didn't want to retrieve it. So just imagine a 3 foot by 5 foot check with $1000 and you'll get the picture. At right is Lee Yaffa who won the raffle chance to spin the wheel of trivia. Question was what year was Salem Founded. Yaffa guessed 1682, but was told it was 1602. Actual correct answer is who cares? Beverly is #1 suck it Witches!
Best line of lunch wondering why Frank Kaminski was attending " there are more relics in Salem". Peace out!
