ROTARY:
MAKING A DIFFERENCE

HOME OPENER FASTBALL!

I'm a fastball, spitball, slider, I'm up an in and down and outside, I'll bring the cheese! Headhunting, I'll drop you to your knees, I throw wild pitches, Every ball has 108 stitches, Opening day is here have an ice cold beer, My term is in the 7th inning stretch, maybe I'll start to doodle or sketch?

Say hey Willie, do you have an ugly baseball card in your attic?

Talk Like Your President

If you ever wanted to get on the good graces of your President, then you need to speak her lingo. We offer these tips to get you in the inner circle

AN' STUFF: The Minnesota version of "etc."
Example: "We went deer hunting out at da lake and fishing an stuff."

Last weeks speaker

Erin Dionne who spoke about her latest book and some of the trials and challenges to writing a book. She said- she prefers teen stories since any they do is magnified 100x than what any of us adults have to deal with. Interesting speech, President maureen and Jo Broderick wing ladies flank her.

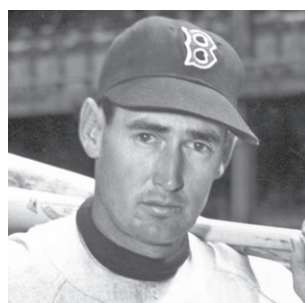

Red Cross Heroes breakfast team photo by Congressman Seth Moulten's staff. Good to know they can multi task. A delightful breakfast celebrating heroes in our area. It had State Troopers, Miss Massachusetts, lots of red and maybe 500 of the beautiful people.

At left is President Maureen presenting Institution for Savings with an award. Where was Almiris when you needed her. A slight malfunction but IFS you know you did well this past year so don't get all caught up in a bunch. You earned the award, now simmer down.

Erin is faculty at Monserrat College of Art and an accomplished author. Wanting to be a writer at the age of 7, being an author is a dream come true. First book was about a young girl named Celeste who was overweight and placed in a beauty contest for overweight children by a well-meaning aunt. Erin uses her books to give voice to young children who are skilled in the arts, but society or schools may not see the skill as important to have.
