Hey, who is guy?

Talk Like Your President

If you ever wanted to get on the good graces of your President, then you need to speak her lingo. We offer these tips to get you in the inner circle

BEDDER: The superlative of Good or an order. Examples: "This new TV is much bedder than dat old one." or "I think you'd bedder be nicer to him."

Big Game means Big bets

For the 120th meeting of Beverly and Salem football game Rotary Presidents get all cocky with braggadoccia. With both Rotary Presidents in the Banking business at opposing banks its sure to be a barn burner. Salem President Jason Consalvo said in the unlikely event of a Beverly win he would provide stylish Bow ties for Beverly Rotarians and march down to Salem Willows, smother himself with Chop Suey Sandwich filling as feral cats (no Panthers available in this area) eat the delicious noodles off of his person. President Maureen Trefry, not to be outdone said if Salem wins she would dress as a Witch (a nice one), cackle uncontrollably and take ANY Salem Rotarian on a guided tour of the newly paved Rantoul Street, stop at newly opened En Fuego restaurant and exclaim "Hey Howling Wolf has an open bar!". Side note: Jason lives in Beverly so we're not sure of his true allegiance in this football game, we will keep a close eye on him for improper behavior. Both Mayors Kim Driscoll and Mike Cahill's spokespeople said they were unavailable for comment as they think any wagering should be left to the professionals in social clubs throughout both cities.

Holy Smokes we got some big wigs!

You only see this kind of lineup in mythology or a fan boys perfectly sealed first issue. District Governor Dave Gardner, President Maureen, DG 2018 Bob Wood and Kang Yu our fabulous ADG. Thats some big hoopla going on their. DG Dave gave us the lowdown on more members, more fun, more drinks the whole shebang from A to Z. We gave him a mug, he gave us sage advice. Peace Dave you earned it, now get on with Rotary stuff.

BEVERLY VS SALEM

The 120th meeting in this rivalry! Good Luck to both teams... mostly Beverly

We found these vintage photos from the archives.

Crazy Legs was the first ever woman to play football in Beverly or anywhere. Since in her playing days women couldn't even vote she played with a ferocity that at times was violent!. After high school she lived a quiet life raising squirrels , playing jazz banjo and doling out wealth management advice.

Crusher was the first Salem player to insist on bow ties on game day. A 3 letter athlete he would intimidate opposing teams with his crushing tackles, on field leadership and sound financial advice whispered in pileups. He disappeared with Amelia Earhart when he served as navigator of that ill fated trip.

Last week at the Beverly Rotary Club

Meeting was called to order by Maureen Trefry at 12:15 pm.

Pledge of Allegiance was led by Bill Beckman, followed by Freddie and Dianne leading us in 'My Country Tis of Thee' and an invocation led by Jack Good.

"Happy Birthday" was sung for Brandon Ruggeri, Zaka Shafiq, Margaret Belmonte, Dr. Jamie, Don Moran, Maureen Trefry and Bill Howard.

The following were guests of the Beverly Rotary club:

Matt Adams _Guest of Ed Cahill
Sierra Powell _ Guest of Russ "Ruff" Queen
Bob Wood _ Guest from the Peabody Rotary Club
Kang C. Yu, Guest from the Saugus Club.
David Gardner- Speaker and District Governor of Rotary.

Announcements:

December 7th there will be a lunch panel on hunger at St. Peter's Church. (Does anyone see the irony this?) Hoping everyone can get around the table for that one.

Santa Parade is on November 26th in Beverly - Please reach out to Al Temkin if you can participate even if it is last minute. Really important that we get a big crowd for Rotary this year, so please participate if you can - families welcome, even dysfunctional holiday ones.

Veterans Contribution for the Monument - based on the meeting from the previous week, Rotary Club was looking to make a contribution to the Veterans Monument that was described last week.

Remember to pay for the Lunch at the Hawthorne on Tuesday - it's $20 folks. For those that had paid for the year this doesn't apply to you, but truthfully, no alligator arms when it comes to this lunch. I'm talking to you, Rich Jones. Reach for that wallet and make sure Tom gets $20 from you.

Multi Club Food Packaging Event is scheduled for Tuesday January 23rd at the Sheraton. We will be contributing $500.00 for 2,000 meals. And I can't figure out how, but either we are shopping at Costco or everyone is getting Ramen, because I can't get my mind around $500 for 2,000 meals. In any event, I'm in just to see how we do that. We need 10 to 12 people, so don't leave me hanging, people. Snow day for that is January 30th.

Sergeant-at-Arms: Andrew DeFranza noted a number of late comers to the meeting.

Several Rotarians were late today including Sue and Rich. Several others were mentioned as well.

Brian Murphy got fined $5 for his guess of 1922 relative to a question on the American Revolutionary War.

Neil and Mike were fined $5 for appearing to have color coordinated shirts.

Mark was recognized and then fined $5 for his successful debut of the North of Forty Turkey Raffle this year. Nice job Mark - the raffle raised more this year than any other year prior.

Marshal Handly's and his table got fined for a flanked attack on the dessert table. Follow up on that, Marshal had claimed that the cookies he was eating were raisin cookies, to which Jacquie replied "you are full of shit". Nice one Jacquie. Take a fine of $5 for that one.

Mike Jones caught a $5 fine for Andrew for apparently assuming that Mike Jones has had a "proper Meal" at Dunkin Donuts. Don't worry Mike, you're not the only Jones eating a proper meal there.

Tom Chatelier took a $5 fine for being a New York Giants fan, along with Andrew DeFranza, for being right on target for the Giants getting the #1 pick next year. By the way, how is the view from there, says the Patriot fan.

Those of us that have kids coming home for Thanksgiving all paid a fine for that. No doubt, next week we will hear many happy dollars of our children who have returned home if they haven't shared already.

Rich Jones got a $20 fine for showing up on "Rich" time.

Happy dollars and announcements:

Happy Dollars from Jacquie - She finally gets her son home from L.A. for the holidays - first time in a long time.

Dianne had Happy Dollars and we were all surprised. Wait, no really, the reason why is grandchild #5 is on the way. Way to get those kids busy!

Zaka gave some happy dollars for very positive announcement - his father had cleared a scare with cancer.

Elizabeth shared a personal connection with the producer of 'For Ahkeem' as she knew him from his early days of producing "Toast Dusters" among other infamous productions on Walt's Beverly Community Programing. She gave some happy dollars for that.

Ann gave a little shout out for the Book Mobile making it in the Santa Parade this year. She gave some happy dollars for that.

Guest Speaker: David Gardner, District Rotary Governor.

David came to share the important contributions that Rotary has made to the communities and how impactful the groups have been over the years. He noted that the participation appears to be dropping across the Region (Currently we are above 1800, but if we slip below 1100 we are in danger of being consolidated with another district). YTD the District is +22 and we are looking to increase that. David gave us some ideas to increase participation which included:

Bring 2 people to 2 events over the next 6 months.
Think of the people you love to experience Rotary. (Dibs on Rachel McAdams.)
Take new member - use $200 to do a service project that is meaningful for them and get other Rotarians to participate in the service project so that they interact with people both inside and outside of Rotary.

Raffle Winner: Was Freddy - she drew a

Thursday Nov 16, 2017

card but did not draw the queen of hearts.

Dates to Watch - Coming Events:

Monday November 20th at 7pm: Andrew DeFranza Spoke about the meeting at City Hall on Monday at 7pm where he is asking for Rotarians to show up and support him. Andrew has been working with the community to re-zone the corner of Sohier and Tozer Roads to create affordable housing in Beverly. He has the support of the city council, and the Mayor, but would certainly appreciate a showing from the community to help demonstrate local support.

Sunday November 26th at 4:30pm: Lee Yaffa had offered for people to come see the special screening of For Ahkeem at the Cabot Theater on the 26th of November at 4:30pm. Rotary was a sponsor for this event. Local kid did an amazing job to produce a film that has won bigly at several local film festivals.

Thursday, December 14th Deadline: Ed Cahill Shared that Beverly Bootstraps is beginning to look for gifts before December 14th. The intent this year is to focus on teens - particularly gift cards to major box stores, or even local eateries like Atomic Café. Apparently Beckman is in the inner loop the youth as well.

Meeting Adjourned: Maureen adjourned the meeting around 1:40pm.

Miscellaneous:

A reminder that if you have a moment to show Francisco around for the holidays, it would certainly be welcome. I'm sure there are traditions, sights, experiences that we can all share with Francisco, even if we have to avoid the four D's. (Dianne, David, Dylan and Derick).

Jacquie reminded us all to continue to use Amazon Smile as it benefits the club.

Scribe of the week:
Dylan Jones. Next week Lauren Belmonte will share her skills.
