Ahhhhhhhhh, look at all the lonely people...

Financial Advice

MONEY MATT-ers

Dear Matt,
 Okay I get it, you like the Beatles and finally we have the Fab Four event this weekend. You know there are many bands from the sixties that we could see as well like: Freddie and the Dreamers, The Hullabalooos, The Tremeloes, Georgie Fame, Dave Dee, Dozy, Beaky, Mick & Tich, Chad & Jeremy, The Merseybeats, The Undertakers, The Who, The Stones or even Donovan. What about it, many bands to choose from. Cat got your tongue?
 – Hank on Hale Street

Dear Hank,
 Eat paste.

Finnish word of the day

St Patrick's Day

Please enjoy this day responsibly not like Weeman here who has gone too far... Sometimes.

Last Weeks Speaker

Speaker last week was Steve Drohovsky, of the Cummings Center. He spoke on all things happening at the Cummings downtown as well as up near the North Shore Music Theatre. Expansion and filling space was the common thread. Steve took some pointed questions as well as he and Matt having what looks like the most uncomfortable handshake we've ever seen.

British Invasion

Rick Squire, from Chippenham in the UK, if you recall Rick came back when Maureen Trefry was President (was it that long ago?) gave us a report on the Well Boring project which is going gang busters (we couldn't find a clean British slang verb to insert), and offered up if anyone wants to go to Kenya to visit a trip will be going later this year. Chris Haight was, Andrew DeFranza and he drew fines for being late.

He announced his Easy Target Member Sergeant Hall of Fame.

- Al Temkin for always having perfect hair

Dave read his latest Fake News column

There were no happy dollars, so we’ll have to wait til next week for an update on Diane’s kids

Speaker

This week’s guest speaker was Steve Drahowski, General Manager of the Cummings Center properties in Beverly. Steve told us about what’s happening at the Cummings Center and at Dunham Road. New buildings are slated to be built near the Salem News and Dunham Road will be widened at the intersection with Brimbal Ave. An interesting nugget – if Building 100 was stood on end, it would be higher than the Prudential Tower!

Raffle

John Lennon held the winning raffle, but did not draw the winning card.

Meeting adjourned by President Matt at 1:30.

Respectfully Submitted
Nick Biancucci

Alo’ Yanks, its been 55 years since we played on Ed’s show and toured the states. A lot has changed over the years, 2 of us are dead, cover bands ripping our music are like yellow matter custard dripping from a dead dog’s eye. Plus we got wind that you try to do one of our songs to start you’re meeting. Well that’s just devine but please, please try to sing in key. As it is you won’t pass the audition. Have a splendid time Saturday night at the Fab Four event- Paul and Ringo
