Sergeant-at-Arms Robert Murphy

Late arrivers who paid a fine were Sue Gabriel, Lee Yaffa

Happy dollars and announcements:
Sue Gabriel Happy dollars for a Beverly high graduate
Rick Mooney - $31 happy dollars for his 31st anniversary

Chet Marcus – Happy dollars for new grandson and for winning the pints for pete grand prize
Leslie Gould – Happy dollars for her 1st anniversary at the GBCC and for her uncle lester who was on the beach in Normandy in 1944. Also for Kate Fox (mother of scholarship recipient) that she has known for 20 years – the check is in the mail.

Bob Murphy presented a broken baseball bat to Spocketeer Nick Biancucci signed by Jonesy and skip to commemorate 50 sprocket issues this year.
Bob Murphy asked Brian Murphy to spell sargent (very confusing) and Brian spelled it ISUCK seemingly a repeat of his performance on the spelling bee.

Bob murphy also paid a $5 fine for all the sergeants based on his great experience at the Beverly Bootstraps event last weekend.

Next up was the "play chin friction game" where Jillian Dubman donned the fake beard and was asked to point out Bob Butterworth (Mrs Butterworth favorite son). That didn't go so well.

Bob was then asked to provide 3 tidbits about himself one of which was true. The tibits were 1) I was a tennis pro, 2) I'm married and 3) all my children and grandchildren live in Massachusetts. The answer was that Bob was a tennis pro.

Bootstraps food drive brought out some interesting traits from our rotary members

Adam Winn asked both what time on Friday was the Saturday food drive but also which Shaws was it at (the Market Basket one!).

Bob Butterworth knew is was at Demoulas and on the third try found the right one.

Lori Cianciulli won the prize for organizing the food

Bob contributed $5 for working. Apparently the people were generous not only to Beverly Bootstraps but also to the people manning the counter
