Last Weeks Speaker

Last weeks speaker, Chris Nazareth from Bootstraps gave us a very informative talk on things down at the Boot. He spoke about the different programs Bootstraps does for the local community. Chris gave a specific example of a family served by Beverly Bootstraps. Monique is a single mother of two children who worked multiple jobs to support her family. Due to bad luck, her family was struggling financially to pay her rent. Beverly Bootstraps stopped an eviction notice she had from her landlord and provided her with food. Beverly Bootstraps served 5,000 clients last year and the numbers are growing. Chris thanked the Beverly Rotary for all the assistance our organization has, and continues to provide, for Beverly Bootstraps.

Fresh From France

Former exchange student Cecilia Buffenoir, along with boyfriend Emmanuel, with escort Martha Mauser and Peter Frasca, spoke to us about her experiences since she was here 10 years ago. Now working for a wine glass company in Paris, extended an open invitation to come, visit, share some wine and cheese. I see road trip in future.

Turkey Recap

Thanks to all who bought, sold or donated to this years North of 40 Turkey raffle. Mike Jones was lucky winner and is taking reservations for dinner. Pictured top seller belt. Pass the gravy... indeed

Smiling Johnson

With his sister Mercy visiting we took a picture of the Obeke siblings. Of course Johnson not smiling for anyone. Lighten up Francis (Johnson). Mercy gets it with smile.

CLOTHING DRIVE

7,500 immigrant families are presently being cared for in state sponsored shelters. Many have come from warmer climates and are desperately in need of clothing as winter approaches. We are asking if you can donate clean, warm, gently used clothing, including coats, boots. Or new socks and underwear if you can.

Clothes should be placed in the St. Vincent de Paul Society bins located in the St. John's parking lot across from Saint's Academy 111 New Balch Street, Beverly. Clothing will be picked up on November 18th just prior to Thanksgiving.

KEEP IN MIND DURING DAY THIS IS A SCHOOL SO DRIVE CAREFULLY.

Thank you for your continuing generosity to friends in need.
