Speakers last week

Ipswich Rotary Club Member Trifecta, Wayne Castonguay, Joan Arsenault and Ann Witzig were our speakers last week talking about the Ipswich watershed and how they are seeking a global grant to help prepare for conservation efforts. Pictured with Prez Diane also posed in tallest to shortest to make photographer job easy peasy, lemon squeezy. Help conserve water see beer mile article in other part of sprocket.

Our club is partnering with Beverly Main Streets to let kids get their inner artist on and decorate Pumpkins on the common. Right now were looking at Oct 23 from 1-4. 100 pumpkins, 1 red truck, 1 bail of hay and lots of paint for artists of all ages. If you can help it would be great. BTW if you have unused paint that hasn't dried up talk to moiph and maybe we can use it. Has to be kid friendly so they don't get too messy.

The Swierczynski Swizzle Schtick

Hey, it's October and the Topsfield Fair is open so court's adjourned, as we take the jury on a tour of the scene of the cavies. Yeah, I know, it's called the HALL OF CAVIES, that barn where you see an acre of rabbits in cages but the classification of "cavies" actually refers to guinea pigs not rabbits. So what do you call it? HALL OF CUTENESS? I mean I've always been partial to lop-eared rabbits but...AWWWW... will you looked at that? Hold my corn dog while I snap a picture of it, will ya? Hey – I said hold it not eat it. Yeah, yeah, we'll check out the giant pumpkin but first I gotta replenish the snacks. Decisions, decisions: a tilt-a-whirl smorgasboard of fried dough, vegetable tempura, frankfurters (here's looking at you, Felix! See I got in my judicial reference), and caramel apples. All this autumnal sweetness puts me in the mood for that schnapps concoction that I call the Caramel Apple Butterscotch Cocktail – that's CABAC and it rhymes with Cavie. Drizzle caramel sauce in an empty High Ball glass. Fill your shaker with ice then add vodka, apple spiced rum, and butterscotch schnapps followed by heavy cream and a splash of vanilla. Shake it like a cavie running for daylight. Pour over ice. As Felix would say, "Prost!"
