See these happy faces, in two days after this they put the smackdown on Salem 60-28 in Thanksgiving game, basically ruining Salem's holiday. At right is the exchange of checks between boosters and clubs. Below is the cavalcade of speakers including Mayors Driscoll, Cahill, Coaches for both teams and ringmaster of the whole show Prez D. Some of the Salem Rotarians were disappointed your editor wasn't wearing a dress, but since I didn't shave legs that morning wasn't feeling it. Always good to meet with our friends across the bridge. Even better when we put the massive smackdown on the gridiron.

Last weeks news, Thursday Nov 23, 2021

The joint meeting of the Beverly and Salem Rotary Clubs was called to order at 12:05 pm by Beverly's own Pres. Diane Howard.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Beverly & Salem Football and Cheer Team Captains.

We then sang the Star-Spangled Banner, led by YouTube.

An exhaustive list of visitors and dignitaries was read by Sue Osborne.

From the Salem side, Rep. Paul Tucker, Mayor Kim Driscoll, Supnt. Zrike, AD Scott Connolly, Student Activities Dir. Lisa Mansfield, and Mat Bouchard, the HC of the SW, graced us with their presence. Also visiting were Football & Cheer Captains Mike Ready, Jereall Del Valle, Mackenzie Fedele and Julia Sumner, and Booster Pres. Melanie Bouchard.

Attending for the Good Guys were Mayor Mike Cahill, Supnt. Charochak, Principal Eliz. Taylor, AD Dan Keefe, and Jeff Hutton, HC of the BP. Football & Cheer Captains Grant Eatin, Pierce Heim, Jordan Irvine and Rob Lyons, and Booster Pres. Jessica Hannon were also present.

Other visitors were Toshiko Suzuki, Francine Temkin, and Rich Tabbut.

The Swierczynski Swizzle Schtick

This Saturday is the first evah HOLIDAY BOURBON BOUNCE, pass the word. Better yet, pass the Bourbon Balls! That's right, Kentucky's only enduring contribution to culture (OK, maybe the Derby ranks in there) comes to mind when the holiday season and bouncing Rotarians roll around. Some are enrobed in chocolate; others wear a halved nut on their heads – I say son, I'm talking bourbon balls not the Rotarians – but the key to packing a festive punch is to soak your nuts in bourbon and add a generous pour to the dough itself. Like those rolling Rotarians, bourbon balls are chilled not cooked. Here are the assembly directions, batteries not included: you need 1 cup pecans; ¾ cup bourbon, divided; 2 cups Nilla Wafers crumbed; ½ cup Dutch-process cocoa powder, divided; ½ cup confectioners' sugar, divided; and 1/4 cup corn syrup. Soak the pecans in half the bourbon. After a couple of hours, drain and drink or reserve the bourbon – your call – and then toast the nuts in the oven. Chop up the nuts and combine in a mixing bowl with the remaining bourbon (if there is any), the thriller-in-the-Nilla crumbs, half the cocoa powder, half the sugar, and all of the corn syrup. Stir until smooth. Using a heaping tablespoon portion, roll the dough into ¾-inch balls. Combine the remaining cocoa powder and sugar and coat each ball. Put the balls on a baking sheet and chill for at least 2 hours. Go and chill likewise. Let the festivities begin!

, Marie Cadillo, and Chris Casey.

No Sergeant or Happy $$ at this one, so if you came flush with cash expecting the usual hijinks, you left disappointed.

Announcements:

Salem is sponsoring the DCF Holiday Party on Sat. 12/11, and is looking for volunteers.

Beverly is inviting friends and family to the Holiday Bourbon Bounce, Sat. 12/04, 4 pm, at the Lucky Dog. Vaccinations of all types encouraged. Sarah MacBurnie-Liporto led the invocation.

After lunch, which was awesome, Mayors Kim Driscoll and Mike Cahill exchanged good-natured barbs and expressed their pride in being part of this historic rivalry.

The Football Coaches embarked on a somewhat lengthier discussion of the merits of each team. Salem HC Bouchard, now in his eighth season, praised the Witches team culture while Beverly HC Hutton, in his first year, noted how much his squad appreciates this special rivalry.

Presidents Diane Howard and Joe Amico, each made a presentation to their rival city Booster Club.

Pres. Howard closed the meeting with well-wishes for both teams in the Big Game, which Beverly leads 63-52-7. Now 64-52-7.

HO, HO, HOLIDAY PARADE!!!

Everyone loves a parade, including our club which had a load of marchers in the 73rd annual Holiday parade last Sunday. Sporting 100 year medallions and doling out gift bags to kids it was a huge success. We have to thank Tim Liporto for truck, assembly and everything else to help pull this off. I see some honor for him in future. Sarah's whole family was part of it, in cab in back of truck and walking alongside. Thanks to all who helped pulled this off including Jackie Rap who is the master elf. Hey Rich Tabbut not even member was marching, says a whole lot of who he is.
