The Swierczynski Swizzle Schtick

A slight departure where we don't make a drink, but imbibe some of Dylan's Salted Caramel Eggnog by a cozy fire. After a generous pour, I seemed to have dozed off and found myself under a Christmas Tree with a broken nutcracker which looked a lot like Dr. Gil, and same size might I say. The clock struck midnight and the room filled with mice under the leadership of a 7 headed Mouse King, with 7 tiny crowns. A battle between gingerbread Rotarians and evil mice began, in the Lighthouse Room. The mice started eating the gingerbread Rotarians and Dr. Gil arose, whipped out his trumpet and played Spanish Flea and the mice army retreated. The Mouse King rallied the troops and led an assault on the dessert table. I was able to distract the evil king by throwing a Jack Good orange at him, long enough for Dr. Gil to impale the king with a sharp Shuka Stick! Dr Gil took my hand and we strolled through the Land of Sweets. At this point Dr Gil exclaimed Clara (Diane) I am very happy at Brooksby Village and surrounded by lovely ladies that represent various decades. As a retired physician I still feel the need to warn you about the dangers of excessive drinking at the holiday's. He waltzed off with a sugar plum fairy into the forest of Nuts. I awoke with a start and gathered my wits. What the hell was in that eggnog? That shit is crazy strong. I reached into my robe and discovered remnants of Walnut shells...A dream? Real? Resolution stay away from eggnog. Merry Christmas, Happy New year
