Matt sharpening his chops.

Sgt Matt had a game of Rotary Family Feud, and since were one big disjointed family why not. Pitting Matt (putt putt) Piaker against Dave (trivia titan) Olson. Outcome never in doubt as Dave continued his mastery of nonsense. What we were looking for is pics of push ups honoring Derek for getting Cummings Foundation to pony up to club in his name. Well thats how it goes. See additional copy on sgt routine in regular notes.

Jack Good Celebration of Life

Join us for a community gathering to remember the life and friendship of Jack Good. The pandemic limited those who knew Jack to grieve or celebrate his life so on September 10, 2021, we will come together to remember a man who meant so much to so many. Please join us. Doors open at 9:30am and program begins at 10:00am.

Last weeks news, Thursday Aug 12, 2021

Meeting was called to order by Diane Howard at 12:16 PM.

Pledge of Allegiance was led by Mark Munoz., followed by Dianne Palter Gill leading us in song and an invocation led by Thad Siemasko

“Happy Birthday” was sung for Jackie, Dr. Gil, Chet, Walt, Lee, Diane and Matt Piaker volunteered to pay early.

There were no guests or visitors today:

Announcements:

Mike Jones – we are putting the Commemorative Book together, and everyone was invited to participate; thank you for buying an ad since we are trying to raise $20-$25k

Dianne Howard – we are helping the MATFI with their 20th anniversary commemoration of 9/11 to help direct people around the property

Elizabeth Macomber – we applied and were approved for a District grant to share costs ½ and ½ to renovate the library at the Beverly Children’s Learning Center; setting up a timeline for fall and will need volunteers to help.

Matt Piaker – evaluating whether we hold the golf outing on August 23rd, move it to later in the fall or cancel it

Rachel Hand – Beverly Library has a BIPOC Voices series book club and discussion, and they are focusing on Not Quite Not White, so that is on Wednesday at 7 PM

Sergeant-at-Arms –
Matt Blanchard

Bob Butterworth for missing a few buttons.

Pushups in honor of Derek’s $1000 donation from the Cummings Foundation – Dave Olson, Leslie Gould (in a dress!), Matt Piaker, Mark Munoz, Chris Haight

Rotary Family Feud – Dave Olson and Matt Piaker were contestants and Dave won – questions included “Spell President Diane’s maiden name”, “What year was Jim Davies born?” and “What day of the week is Disney Day at Aligned For Life Chiropractic?”

Happy dollars and announcements:

Peter Hersee – $20 because his wife retired from the Wenham police and then went back the next day to work per diem

Chris Haight is happy summer is back

Mike Jones - $20 because he went to Sebago

Matt Blanchard $120 - $20 because it’s a beautiful day, he celebrated his anniversary, Brian D’Apice is doing a great job raising money for the anniversary book, and Larry is sitting down; $100 because he is going to be a Dad!

Marshall Handly - $20 because he is happy to see Jim Davies and Jim is happy to be here too

There was no speaker

Raffle Winner:

Sue Gabriel did not win

The Swierczynski Swizzle Schtick

Hey there, Citizens of Rotary, having just breezed through my confirmation hearings – you know, my installation, and thank you it was a lovely evening – I bid you to approach the mixology court. Today’s libation is the POTTED STEWART which balances infusions of Ike and Candice Bergen with a slogan so familiar that you’ll know it when you hear it (and now you’ll know where it came from). We’re talking about Potter Stewart: Yale graduate (double Bulldog); appointed by Eisenhower; a veteran of World War II; and, perhaps even more hazardous, a former member of the Cincinnati City Council. He was preceded on the Supreme Court by Harold Hitz Burton (see Slow Gin Hitz in the December 2011 Schwizzle Schtick) who was also white, male, Republican, and from Cleveland. Do I detect a theme here? But I digress. At first, Potter was frequently in the minority of the Warren Court but emerged as a centrist swing vote in the Burger Court. (Yup, I told you that last tidbit just to include the phrase “Burger Court”. Insert your own Burger King joke here or just sashay around the room wearing a crown.) Potter’s enduring legacy may well be his concurring opinion in Jacobellis v. Ohio (everything happens in Ohio) in which the lower courts found the impresario of an Ohio “art theatre” guilty of possessing and showing an obscene film. The Supreme Court reversed that judgement stating that the film was not obscene and therefore was constitutionally protected. But get this: the Court could not agree on a rationale as to why the film was not pornography. No concurring or dissenting opinion had the support of more than two jurists. With the wisdom of Solomon or the equivocation of Bill Clinton, Stewart opined a definition of hard core pornography: “I shall not today attempt further to define the kinds of material I understand to be embraced within that shorthand description; and perhaps I could never succeed in intelligibly doing so. But I know it when I see it, and the motion picture involved in this case is not that.” I’ll drink to that and here’s how: 2 oz Buckeye Vodka, ¼ cup blackberries, 3 fresh basil leaves, a centrist squeeze of lime juice, and ginger beer to top. Cheers!

“Waaaait a minute”, sez you, “What about Candice Bergen?” Glad you asked. The film at question in Jacobellis v. Ohio was The Lovers directed by Louis Malle who decades later would marry Candice Bergen. OK!
