Last weeks speaker

Tanya of Winterdance Dogsled Tours is encased in cold blue skies of Ontario., hence the bluish tint. She spoke about the dogsleding world and husband Hanks journey of dogsledding adventures, and troubles doing a 1000 mile race in frigid temps. Even though a difficult task the dogs perform admirably, and were rewarded with Prada booties.

Photography eh, Photographs eh!

On September 23 looking to do a group aerial shot of club before our weekly meeting. Make sure to wear Rotary Blue. Will be done as a drone shot. Looking to take picture at noon. Hopefully all can make it.

PICTURES 2

Also Moiph is looking for a head shot or a little further back to include in commemorative book. You may have a favorite shot or something you took for work or linked in. Anyway get those to pictures to moiph. In 100 years readers will be surprised how beautiful you are.

Speaker: Twenty-two years ago Hank & Tanya quit their jobs and left their home in the city to move to Ontario's wilderness with their beloved huskies to start a business, family and lifestyle. They now welcome over 2000 guests every winter to experience dogsledding, Hank & their huskies have competed in 6 – 1000 mile races in Alaska & the Yukon and they have written two books - the latest an international best-seller. Tanya shares stories and lessons around leadership, teamwork, overcoming adversity and building a business to international audiences. They share their lives with their four children, five cats, and large husky family.

Jack Good Event

Great showing by Rotary community to help honor Jack good for not just his service to Rotary but the greater community and North Shore area. We saw Tom Alexander, Jo Broderick, Elizabeth Macomber, Margo Casey and Moiph on stage. Plus a bevy of stars in video tribute.

Thanks to all who came and supported the family for this GREAT man who will always be in our hearts and minds. Painting for family by moiph, WHAT!!!!

911 tribute at MEMA

Not everything at 911 memorial event was solemn. After directing traffic flow, listening to various speakers and presenters, our volunteer team went all subterranean and explored the nether world of Nike Missile sites and bunkers in another troubling time. Proof that danger may have passed is the Nantucket Red shorts worn by Bob Murphy, and Maureen wearing her Met Gala hat borrowed by J.Lo. Surprising while touring the site our team came across Derek Maxfield, Dr Meng Lee and Tom Alexander. They were planning a fund raising meeting for the club. Yes counts as a makeup.

The Swierczynski Swizzle Schtick

Is it time to for leaf peeping yet? Or am I pushing the calendar and, yuh, my days in office as Rotary Prez? I ask because on your next foliage tour north you may want to pass through Chesterfield, New Hampshire, the birthplace of Harlan F. Stone, who served on and later led the Supreme Court from 1925 – 1946. There's no Harlan F. Stone museum to visit there but not to worry because this week the Swierczynski Bar Association spotlights the HARLAN WALLBANGER, which demonstrates how a punch of Galliano adds more gravitas to a classic Screwdriver than a first Monday in October. Here's a drink that answers the eternal question asked by anyone holding a tall yellow bottle of Galliano, "What the #@! do I do with this?" Or as any alum of the disco era can attest, a concoction that will leave you "hugging the wall." Stone was nominated to the Supreme Court by Calvin Coolidge, with whom he attended – second local shoutout! - Amherst College as a young man. Stone had served as Coolidge's Attorney General, launching an anti-trust investigation of the Aluminum Company of America, which was owned by the family of Andrew Mellon. Oops! Mellon was serving at the time as Coolidge's Secretary of the Treasury. Talk about AWK-WARD cabinet meetings. Maybe that's why Harland was kicked upstairs. Now here's the not-so-New-Deal: You don't need a shaker, build it right in the glass. Fill a tall glass with ice; add 1.25 oz of vodka and 3 oz of orange juice and stir. Float .5 oz of Galliano on top and garnish with a slice of orange and maraschino cherry. Let's get HFStoned.
