Last Weeks Speakers

A real estate bonanza of classifications was held last week. Started with Linda Turcotte, (2nd from right) and her experiences over the years and at Keller Williams. Then we had a tag team of Louisa and Annie representing Engel and Volkers (1st and 2nd from left) Childhood rivals, sports rivals now teaming up to kick ass and take names, or referrals. Plus they gave out treats for trivia questions which is always a good thing. Did we mention 2nd VP Sue Gabriel (1st on right) ran the whole thing seamlessly. Jonesy, who needs him? Runs pretty good without him. Just saying.

Last meeting news, Thursday May 19, 2022

2nd Vice President Sue Gabriel ran the meeting today.

Pledge of Allegiance was said by the group.

We then sang “America the Beautiful”
Invocation done today by Rachel Hand who reminded us of the tragedy over the weekend in Buffalo. She played a video of Jillian Haynsworth, Poet Laureate of Buffalo, saying some of her own words about the violence that occurred.

Sue Gabriel asked for a moment of silence for those in Buffalo. She then said, “We, as Rotarians, are here to make a difference. Let’s make a better difference.”

There were no birthdays today

Attending through Zoom today were: Barry Sullivan, Julie Flower, Rachel Hand and Bob Murphy

Announcements

Moiph – Shoutout to all who helped “Spruce Up” the Rotary Traffic Island. A subsequent re-planting will occur in a few weeks followed by a pool party at the Temkin Palace. More details to follow.

Rich Tabbut – Event happening this afternoon at the Senior Center 4-5:30PM titled “Telling Your Stories”

Al Temkin – Around the Town with Rotary shoot was completed – newest edition interviews Linda Turcotte “It’s Awesome”

Sergeant Andrew DeFranza

Happy/Gratitude Bucks

Gary – Son moved back from Denver and his daughter is graduating college this Saturday

Elizabeth Macomber – moving to Camden Maine after a very thankful and wonderful 25 years in Beverly Rotary. Enjoyed a wonderful sendoff from a beautiful group of women on Tuesday. “I love you all and I will miss you all.”

Sue Gabriel – Sold her house and bought a house (thanks to Sean G and Sarah MacB.)

Boots Straps – Great event coming up on June 2nd (Boots n Blooms!) tickets available, get them while you can. Bootstraps is a recipient of the Cummings Foundation $100,000 over the next 10 years!

Lorinda – “All My Children” are home

Kyle Marsh – Winning @ darts – defeating the team that they lost to in regular season. But, like the NBA, you show up in the postseason.

Larry Herman – Granddaughter graduated number 1 in her class from WVPI

Jackie Rap – On Chronicle with grandsons touring “Dino Safari”

Now for the not so happy fines:

Andrew D – my daughter now can rep the “I know a guy” card

Matt Piaker – who concert, ran into Scotty D. – who was repeatedly “lost”

Rich Tabbut – recent run for the Dick Hoyt Foundation

Purple People – Leslie Gould and Chris Haight

Moiph – Great ensemble – dressy attire

Andrew was invited for golf – needs some help, so time to fine Matt Piaker and Derek Maxfield for coaching/advice

Sue Osborne – Pay for Anthony and Ellen Dunn?

Marshall – “The Bullshit Detector”

Classification Speaker 1 – Linda Turcotte:

Realtor with Keller Williams Began her career in banking at Salem Five – it taught her the skills she has a business developer, Career change at 60 – realtor, Multiple boards/community involvement, Passions – Dana Farber Institute for Cancer Research. Started when she was driving her sister in law, Maureen for treatments and exam/follow ups with her doctor. All the funds she raises go to support her sister in law’s research/consulting physician. In April 2013 Maureen passed away, Linda continues to dedicate her time to help raise funds for a cure.

Ellis Sq Friends – donates meals from the United Methodist Church on Dane St. normally fed 40/50 people per week. Over the past few months, it has grown to 100 people per week. The program also gives out bagged lunches each week. As a new member Rotary Service Project, Linda will be delivering 100 bagged lunches next week to Ellis Square Friends. Interested Rotarians can assist her in bagging the lunches next week!

Classification Speakers 2&3 – Louisa Del Rio and Annie McClelland

Annie – Native of Hamilton, avid athlete – went on to St Lawrence University where she played division I athletics.

Louisa – Native of Hamilton, avid athlete – went to Boston University where she captained the lacrosse team. They met in 6th grade and have been friends ever since. Louisa had a hospitality focus, working for Marriott after college, then on to events management – she ran her own company in NYC – where she was a Rotarian. Then, she and Annie reunited in NYC and decided to team up together, now working for Engel-Volkers. They are motivated to give back and are excited about Rotary in Service. They plan to coordinate a program/project with Project Adventure and Rotary. They ended their talk with a fun photo game – winners took away 100 Grand. (The Candy Bar, people....)

Raffle

Winning ticket was Dean Sidell. No winner – 3 of hearts...

Meeting adjourned @ 1:20 PM.
Respectfully Submitted by Brad Hunt

The Swierczynski Swizzle Schtick

Salutations, Rotatations! Justice Joseph Story was the youngest Supreme ever to take the post at just 32 years old. He was depicted in the Steven Spielberg film Armistad and played by none other than a fellow brother of the robe, retired Justice Harry Blackmun. You are growing sleepy, very sleepy, your eyelids are massive weights which you must let fall. Now my work begins. Transcribing international messages in the dusty back pages of a backwater do-gooder fanzine. I have successfully convinced you that my life revolves around Supreme Court minutiae and cocktails. Well, maybe the latter. But, useful idiots, have I not assembled my persona so precisely that you don’t think twice when a Club President suddenly retires from her law practice? Who jets off to Sao Miquel spontaneously like Top Gun? Ever see Kevin Kelleher do that? Oh yeah, freedom’s just another word for nothin’ left to lose. Me and Tommy McCruise. Do you not see that “Azores” is an anagram for “Soros”? Bwahahaha. Well duh yeah sure, if you drop the z. And the a and e. Of course, you have to add another o. You want me to spell it out for you? (Yawns widely) I tire of toying with you cute little mice. When you read the words “ice cubes”, you will reawaken and read the recipe for the “Cloak and Dagger” cocktail. Am I fiendish or what? You will ask once again, “Has this woman nothing more to do than mix and consume cocktails?” On the count of three... One...Two...The Cloak and Dagger cocktail: Ice cubes. 1.5 oz gin (may I suggest Citadelle? Elon is so partial to it.), .75 oz fresh lime juice (Dr. K insists it is strained of pulp), .5 oz of simple syrup (simple like you, my little lambs... she says stroking a white kitten.), .5 oz green chartreuse. Extra Brut sparkling wine. Shake it all – hold the Brut (I always do...) - in a shaker, strain into a cocktail glass. Top with sparkling wine and serve. Till we meet again. Prost!
