Last weeks speakers

Jen Freedson and Gary Larson gave us a double whammy of classification talks last week. We found out Gary was a soccer ref, and youth coach, Jen was born in Germany and is an Army brat. What's President Diane doing with the gavel (grovel) ready to strike? Great talk by both of these two. Only thing bigger is triple talk in a few weeks with Johnson, Annie and Louisa. We can wait.

Moiph for giving out the wrong information in the recent sprocket. (tell me something we didn't know)

Classification speeches –
Gary Larsen is from the south shore, Loves the Seafood in the north but says the Pizza is the best in the South! Specifically a place called Lynwood in Randolph. Gary moved frequently growing up and resided for a brief time 1973-1974 in Jackson Mississippi. Graduated Bridgewater State in 1987 and then worked in many different fields. He worked as an accountant, and NASCAP and coached soccer. (Not sure if you want to add this or not but his oldest son passed away in 2010 from a car accident. Name was Kevin) I know it was very personal so not sure if we should put it in or not.

Jen Freedson was born in Germany, her father was in the Army and this led to much traveling. Due to the traveling this allowed for Jen to develop a lot of emotional intelligence. Jen has lived in Colorado, Texas and California and has a sister named Julia, which is her best friend. Growing up her mother developed breast cancer, which she survived, and this motivated Jen to pay attention to what she puts in her body, the environment and her surroundings. Jen is currently a part of Green Beverly and Faith and has two daughters. Jen is looking forward to giving back to the community now through Rotary.

Eric Immerman – Pulled a Jack – no Joker!

Meeting adjourned at 1:23
Submitted by Brockton's finest Kyle Marsh

Who's this good looking man?

While you were sleeping late on Patriots Day or own Dr Doug Peterson ran the marathon with a full pack and in military boots. Yes you feel inferior but you should you lazy bastards. Doug when knees etc don't need replacing we'd love to see you. We miss you and that million dollar smile and thumb.

Who's this good looking kid?

Why its Sammy Hendrix Goudreau and dad Sean. Sammy was able to sample adult food and hear sergeant Derek drop a few choice words. So far no scarring visible on the young man. Thanks for bringing him along and make us all feel old as dirt.

The Swierczynski Swizzle Schtick

Drinking and horse gambling, nothing goes better, and this week we celebrate one of the best of all time. In the storied history of the Kentucky Derby only one winner has won. That would be the immortal Judge Himes. Yes other horses with Judge have run Hanging Judge, Here Come Da Judge and Judge Judy. Himes was an American Thoroughbred racehorse that was foaled in Kentucky and was the winner of the 1903 Kentucky Derby. He was a chestnut colt sired by imported Esher out of the mare Lullaby (by the great racer Longfellow (look it up I didn't make it up)) He was bred at Hartland Stud in Kentucky and showed promise as a young fowl. After racing life he was sold in New Orleans to turfman Phill Chin in March 1906 for use as a breeding stallion. He sired a few half-bred foals before he was sold to silent film star Lillian Gish as a support animal far ahead of current trends to get through the week. He did star in an early Our Gang serial called "Farina goes to the track". It is unknown what became of Judge Himes but glue factory may have been final race. We could go with a Mint Julip, but too cliché for our tastes. We prefer the more sophisticated "Brown Derby"

2 parts Wild Turkey® Bourbon, 1 part fresh squeezed grapefruit juice, 1/4 part fresh squeezed lemon juice, 1/2 part honey

Directions: Add all ingredients into shaker with ice. Shake, and strain into coupe glass. Garnish with lemon peel.

Grab your favorite fascinators, bet on a longshot and enjoy the afternoon!
