Artsfest is smash success!!!!

A huge turnout this past weekend as kids of all ages came and decorated shirts by us. Just one sample of Liam's art in lower right. We had a Banskys moment as well as nearly invisible Frank Kaminski showed up at the start of the event. Thanks to all who helped out in different teams. Only sizes left were very small (think Chia Pet size) which we will store in art tight containers and bring out next year. Over 400 shirts were not harmed in process.

Jack Good Celebration of Life

Join us for a community gathering to remember the life and friendship of Jack Good. The pandemic limited those who knew Jack to grieve or celebrate his life so on September 10, 2021, we will come together to remember a man who meant so much to so many. Please join us. Doors open at 9:30am and program begins at 10:00am.

Open and FREE to all

A triple shot of Paul Harris!

A Paul Harris +3 is that rare Rotary honor bestowed on the best of the best of the best (Rip Torn line from Men in Black movie). Our own Bob Murphy was honored with this last week (hey Paul D, no mention in notes?) Bob's contribution's to the club are well known but also his contributions to the Foundation are recognized. We will look past the unshaven face and congratulate him on this well deserved honor. Only 5 more to go before you catch up to Frank Kinzie, Sheryl Meehan and Alex Ushakoff. Zowie is wowie!

The Swierczynski Swizzle Schtick

Thirst quenched of Rotary, having just breezed through a tornado last Thursday in Lighthouse Room, AND a hurricane (sort of) this weekend we decided we needed to have a concoction that will help us forget this troubling weather. I suggest something I call the Anderson Absinthe, based on the actor/magician/comedian Harry Anderson. You might ask what does this have to do with the judicial process? Well friends you may recall Harry was a presiding judge on a show called "Night Court". Popular from 1984-1992. Harry would sprinkle comedic wisdom and magic tricks PLUS sleight of hand to keep his sanity. I digress, were here to talk about drinks. To help forget possible global warming issues and other bad news, start here - You'll coat the sides of a frosted glass with absinthe. Dump out the excess liqueur into the sink (or drink it!). Then to a separate glass, add sugar, a splash of water, and Peychaud bitters and stir to dissolve.

Strain into the absinthe-coated glass and add rye. Stir and garnish with a twist of lemon. Enjoy as you gaze upon the night sky.

But imbibers beware TOO much of a Anderson Absinthe may lead to permanent blindness, or even worse visions of Bull (Richard Moll), Christine (Markie Post), Dan (John Larroquette), or any number of other characters entering your dream stages and tormenting you with tales of Mel Torme. (who coincidentally made 10 guest appearances on Night Court. For those who are unfamiliar with show please google and get the lowdown. No need for Funk and Wagnalls anymore. Cheers, drink up to forget.

Magritte Moment

Last week our roving eyes caught this moment in time which reminded us of that famous Belgian artist Rene Magritte. On left we have 1941 Son of Man front view. On right we have Son of a Beach, back view 2021 version. Both impeccably dressed and coiffured. We also have a waxed and well tanned neck on right. Art lovers rejoice, the word is a better place to live in.
